ADIRONDACK CIVIC CENTER COALITION

The Adirondack Civic Center Coalition was formed to organize the local purchase of the then-named Glens Falls Civic Center and the Adirondack Thunder. As of April 1, 2015, the facility is privately managed by the Adirondack Civic Center Coalition, Inc. On February 28, 2017, the Coalition purchased the Adirondack Thunder from the Calgary Flames, solidifying hockey in the region.

HARDING MAZZOTTI ARENA

Harding Mazzotti Arena, formally known as the Cool Insuring Arena and Glens Falls Civic Center, is a 4,806-seat multi-purpose venue located in downtown Glens Falls, NY. The venue, built in 1979, is a full entertainment arena featuring concerts, family shows, consumer shows, and sporting events. The facility is the home for sports and entertainment in New York’s North Country. The arena is able to reach nearly 750,000 people throughout the Capital Region, the Adirondacks, and Western Vermont.

Harding Mazzotti Arena accommodates up to 7,562 patrons for an in-the-round performance. The venue also features the 7,335 square foot Heritage Hall, a multi-purpose room available to groups for meetings, banquets, and other public and private events.
