Character Win

The Mariners rebounded nicely from a shutout loss on Wednesday for a gritty 3-2 win on Friday, setting up a rubber match on Saturday night at Idaho Central Arena. The first period was a carbon copy of Wednesday's game, with the Mariners winning the shot battle, but trailing 1-0. Defenseman Connor Doherty ended the scoring drought with an unusual goal in the second period on a puck that caromed strangely off the end boards and back over the Idaho netminder. Antonio Venuto also scored his team-leading fifth goal of the season in the second, before Linus Hemstrom's power play goal gave Maine its first lead of the series early in the third. Despite allowing five power play goals over the first five periods this week, the Mariners completed two key kills midway through the third to help secure the one-goal victory.

North Division Tightens

Just five points separate the top six teams in the ECHL's North Division, as the season approaches the one quarter mark next weekend. The first place Trois-Rivieres Lions lost their fifth game in a row on Friday night, seeing their division lead melt to just one point over Adirondack and Greensboro. Despite being in sixth place entering Saturday, the Mariners remain in solid position, having played just 11 games and holding games in hand on four of the five teams ahead of them. The Mariners will resume divisional play at home on Wednesday against Worcester before traveling to Adirondack for three next weekend.
