INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 2026-27 edition of the ECHL Official Guide and Record Book.

Thank you to the media relations contacts for each of the ECHL teams and to the National Hockey League teams for their continued willingness to provide photographs of former ECHL players.

Senior PR/Historical Specialist Joe Babik oversees the layout, design and production while also coordinating the content with each of the individual teams.

Graphic Design Manager Adam Pysher designed the covers for all of the ECHL publications including the Official Guide and Record Book.

Recognition of the key people who contribute to the ECHL Official Guide and Record Book wouldn't be complete without mentioning Doug Price, who created the first edition, an 80-page publication in 1993-94.

Researchers and historians: contact the Society for International Hockey Research (www.sihrhockey.org).

We welcome comments and appreciate compliments from readers and media members and our goal remains to have the Official Guide and Record Book provide comprehensive information about the Premier 'AA' Hockey League.

Please enjoy the season and thank you for your interest and support of the ECHL.

Accuracy remains a top priority for the ECHL Guide and Record Book.
We appreciate comments and clarification from our readers. Please direct these to: echl@echl.com or ECHL, 830 Broad St. Suite 3, Shrewsbury, NJ 07702. Your involvement makes a better publication.

The ECHL has been represented on the last 26 Stanley Cup champions including the Carolina Hurricanes in 2026 with seven individuals with ECHL ties: goaltender Brandon Bussi (pictured), Vice President Pro Player Personnel Chris Abbott, Head Athletic Trainer Doug Bennett, Assistant Athletic Trainer Koryd Lavimoniere, Head Equipment Manager Jorge Alves, TV/Radio Analyst Tripp Tracy and Editorial Content Producer & Team Reporter Walt Ruff.

Welcome From ECHL Commissioner

Dear ECHL Fans,

Welcome to the 39th Season of ECHL Hockey, as we look to provide exciting entertainment across North America to 30 markets (including two new ones for 2026-27!) in the year ahead. This includes continuing to enhance our role as the developmental league to the National Hockey League and American Hockey League, as we have now eclipsed over 780 players having graduated to the NHL (including 14 who made their debut lasy year), as well as seven NHL Head Coaches who honed their pro career in our league. The 2025-26 Season saw the most ever NHL/AHL contracts assigned to the ECHL, and we anticipate growing this figure for the future to continue to provide talent to the next level.

Last season, the ECHL welcomed an average of 5,018 fans per game, marking the first time the League surpassed 5,000 fans per game since the 1997-98 Season, and just the fourth season over 5,000 all-time. Additionally, between the regular season and Kelly Cup Playoffs, an all-time record of 5,810,411 fans attended ECHL games, marking the fourth consecutive season a new record has been established!

We continue to pride ourselves on offering affordable entertainment to the communities we serve, welcoming sport fans, families, businesses, and groups of all sizes to enjoy an outing together and take in the exciting ECHL action. We hope you'll find our venues ro be a welcoming atmosphere where you can root on your hometown team and connect with your local community.

The ECHL would also like to congratulate the Florida Everblades, who captured their fourth Kelly Cup title in the last five seasons - and fifth championship all-time - in 2026, defeating the Kansas City Mavericks in six games in the Kelly Cup Finals. The Finals featured standing-room only crowds and the energy generated by both fanbases was astounding.

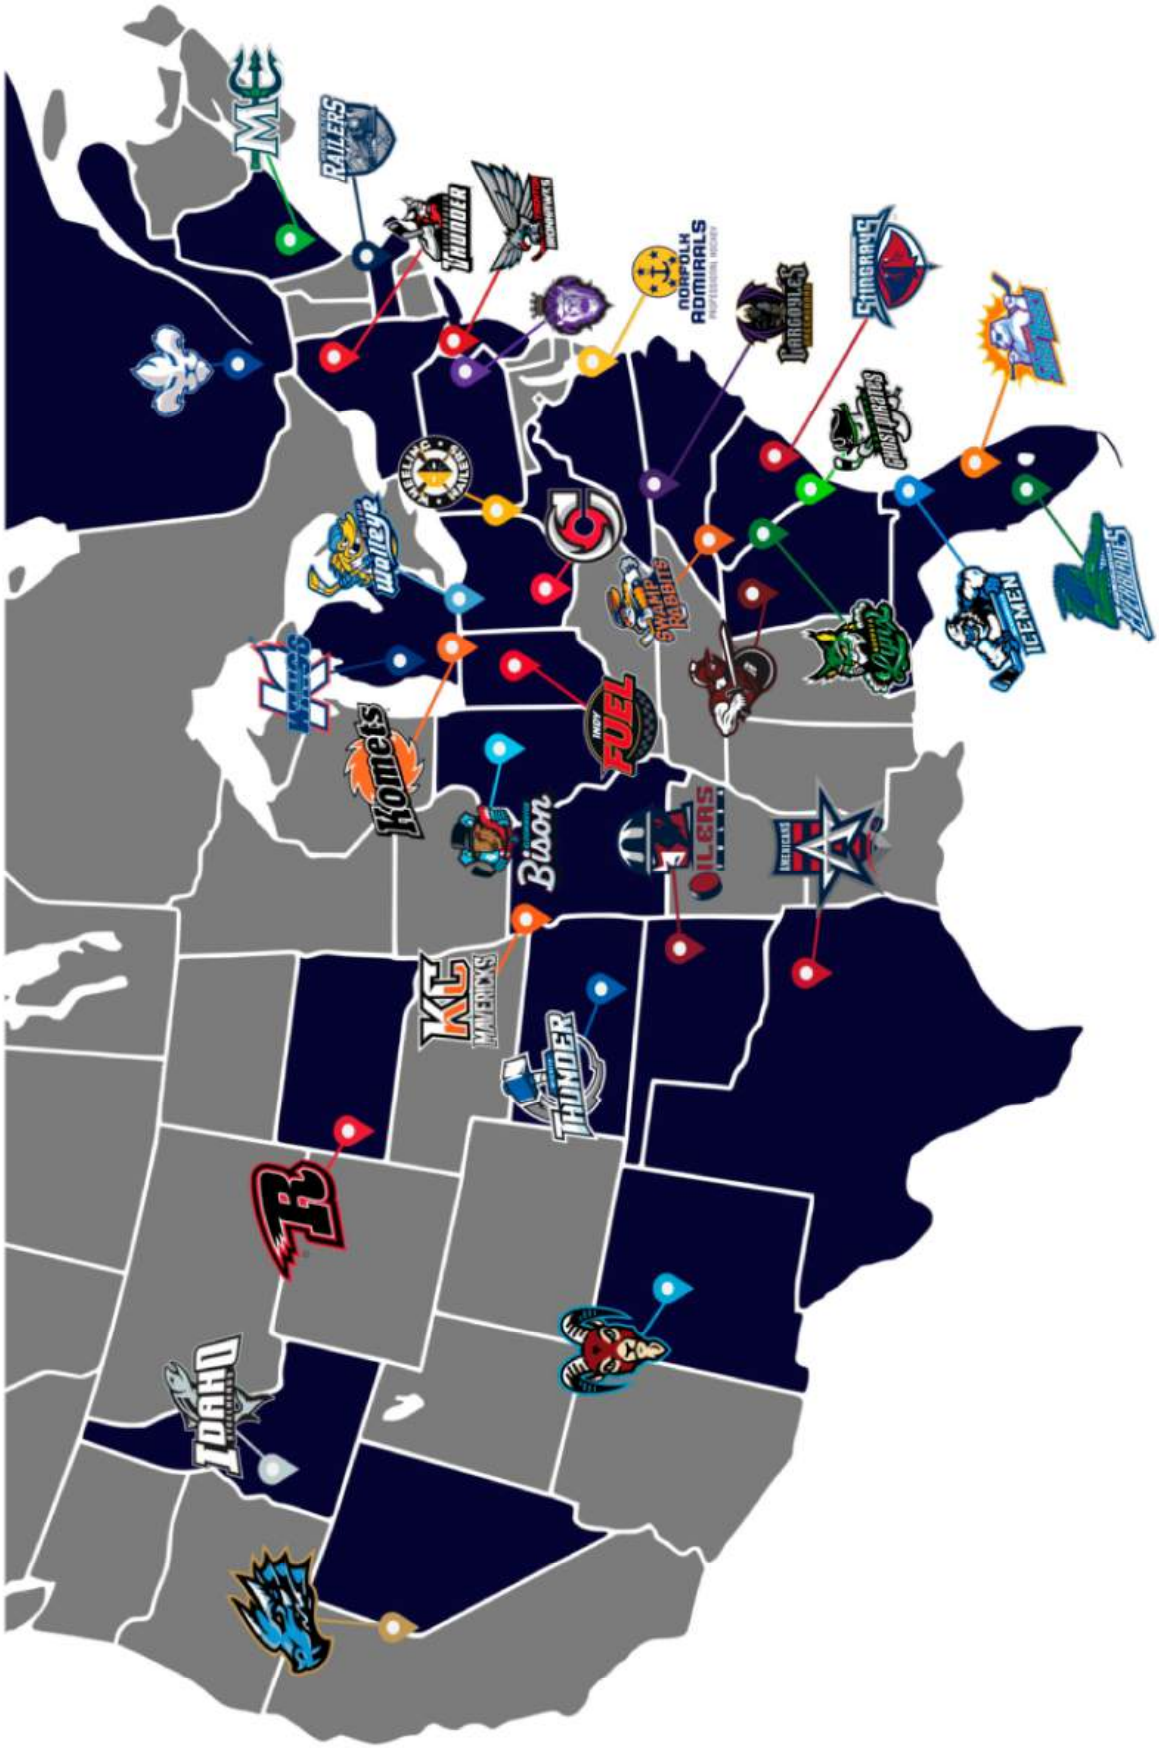

Our Teams' biggest contribution to our markets continues to be the impact off the ice in the communities we serve, donating an ECHL record of over $4.6 million last Season. This is on top of the countless hours that our staff, coaches and players dedicate to local schools, hospitals, and charities to become an integral part of the community.

The ECHL has been represented on the last 26 Stanley Cup champions including in 2026 with seven individuals on the Carolina Hurricanes: goaltender Brandon Bussi, Vice President Pro Player Personnel Chris Abbott, Head Athletic Trainer Doug Bennett, Assistant Athletic Trainer Koryd Lavimoniere, Head Equipment Manager Jorge Alves, TV/Radio Analyst Tripp Tracy and Editorial Content Producer & Team Reporter Walt Ruff.

Thank you on behalf of the ECHL and all of our Teams for your continued support and we hope that you and those you attend with enjoy following your favorite club and making lasting memories around the ECHL experience as we approach four decades of providing affordable entertainment.

Sincerely,

Ryan Crelin
ECHL Commissioner

Cam Johnson of the Florida Everblades Nailers received the Nick Vitucci ECHL Goaltender of the Year award for the second consecutive season in 2025-26. Johnson led the ECHL in wins (31), minutes played (2,965) and goals-against average (1.84) while ranking fourth in save percentage (.923) and tied for ninth in shutouts (3). His 1.84 goals-against average is tied as the third-lowest in a single-season in the League's 38-year history and he became just the eighth goaltender in ECHL history to win at least 30 games in multiple seasons.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Eric Trapp
Chairman of the Board

Eric Trapp is in his first season as Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors. He has been with the Idaho Steelheads since the team's inception in 1997. Eric Trapp is president of Idaho Sports Properties and is responsible for the business operations of the Idaho Steelheads while also serving as the team's representative on the ECHL Board of Governors. Trapp received the ECHL Marketing Director of the Year Award following the team's inaugural season in 2003-04 and was named ECHL Executive of the Year in 2019-20. He was instrumental in the initial introduction, marketing and promotion of the Steelheads. He began his career in professional sports in 1991 with Diamond Sports, which owned and operated the Boise Hawks minor league professional baseball team. After serving as director of marketing for both the Hawks and the Sioux City Explorers baseball teams, Trapp was promoted to vice president of Diamond Sports in 1996 and was responsible for overseeing the company's baseball entities (Boise Hawks, El Paso Diablos and Sioux City Explorers) from 1996-98. Named senior vice president in 1998, the University of Idaho graduate also handled the marketing and promotions for other Diamond Sports entities including the Idaho Sneakers World TeamTennis franchise and professional boxing events hosted at Idaho Central Arena.

Ryan Crelin
Commissioner

Ryan Crelin enters his ninhth season as ECHL Commissioner in the 2026-27 Season. He is just the fourth person to fill the position in League history.

Crelin was named Chief Operating Officer of the ECHL on May 1, 2017, and in that role, oversaw all day-to-day business operations of the League. Crelin enters his 22nd season with the ECHL after initially beginning his tenure as intern during the 2005-06 season.

During his time with the League, Crelin has been responsible for the overall operations of the League focusing on financial initiatives, Leaguewide partnerships/contracts, and signature League showcase events such as the annual All-Star Game and Marketing Meetings. In addition, he also has worked closely with teams on Leaguewide risk management, ticket sales/corporate sponsorship revenue generation, arena-lease negotiations, and budgeting/operations within the scope of the ECHL Collective Bargaining Agreement, NHL/AHL Affiliation Agreements and overall business model. Crelin led the marketing initiative in the ECHL/GEICO relationship creating the first of its kind blue-painted and branded goal posts, and secured the partnership with EA Sports for the inclusion of the ECHL in the NHL video game series.

Crelin earned his M.B.A. with a concentration in finance & taxation at Rutgers University in May 2010 after being awarded his bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in sport management & marketing from Seton Hall University in May 2006. At Seton Hall, he also served as president of the Sport Management Student Association, was a member of the National Business Honor Society and played ice hockey for the Pirates. Prior to joining the ECHL, Crelin worked for a Public Accountant near his hometown of Middletown, N.J. and currently resides in Belford, N.J. with his wife and family.

Patrick J. Kelly
Commissioner Emeritus

Patrick J. Kelly was named Commissioner Emeritus of the ECHL following the 1995-96 season, after serving as Commissioner for the first eight seasons of the ECHL.

He was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame as part of the inaugural class in 2008, and in 2016, received the Lester Patrick Trophy for outstanding service to hockey in the United States.

Kelly celebrates his 74th season in hockey in 2026-27 having begun his career with the St. Catherine Tee Pees of the Ontario Junior Hockey League in 1953. He played professionally for the Trois Rivieres Lions in the Quebec League, the Troy Bruins of the International Hockey League and the Greensboro Generals, Jersey Devils and Clinton Comets of the Eastern Hockey League. He helped Crowland capture the 1948-49 Bantam B Championship of Ontario, beating Peterborough in the finals.

He began his coaching career in the Eastern Hockey League, serving as player/head coach beginning with the Jersey Devils in 1964-65 and continuing with the Clinton (New York) Comets from 1965-73. Clinton was 151-39-28 and won three straight regular season and postseason titles from 1967-68 through 1969-70. In 1967-68, the Comets finished with a 57-5-10 record, making them the only professional team in history to lose only five games or less in a season, and in 1969-70, Kelly was named Minor League Coach of the Year by The Hockey News. Kelly served as head coach and general manager for Charlotte in the Southern Hockey League from 1973-76 guiding the Checkers to a 136-68-12 record, two regular season titles and two postseason titles while earning Coach of the Year honors in the SHL twice.

He coached the Colorado Rockies in the National Hockey League in 1977-78 and is the only coach in history to lead the Rockies into the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Following coaching stops in the AHL, Kelly went to Peoria in the IHL where he led the Rivermen to the Turner Cup in his first season behind the bench in 1984-85. He recorded his 800th career win on January 4, 1987 and was inducted into the Peoria Sports Hall of Fame in February of 1990. Kelly was inducted into the Roanoke Hall of Fame and the Sports Hall of Fame in his hometown of Welland, Ontario in 1998, in March of 2002 he became the first inductee into the Greensboro Hockey Hall of Fame when the Generals retired his uniform number (5). He was also part of the first class of inductees into the Charlotte Hockey Hall of Fame in 2008 and in June 2010, he was inducted into the Greater Utica Sports Hall of Fame.

Patrick and his wife, June, reside in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Kelly received the Lester Patrick Award from USA Hockey in November 2016.

Terry Kalna
Chief Operating Officer

Terry Kalna was named the ECHL's Chief Operating Officer in October 2025. In his role, Kalna will be responsible for executing the strategic plan, creating new strategic partnerships for the growth of the league, and assisting teams with revenue generation including partnership activation, ticket sales, and media distribution, as well as working to enhance overall league operations at both the team and league level.

Kalna, who is the Chairman of the USA Hockey Marketing Committee, joined the ECHL after serving as an advisor to the Columbus Blue Jackets.

Prior to those advisory roles, Kalna was Chief Revenue Officer at Canucks Sports & Entertainment, where he led the organization's broadcasting, business intelligence, corporate partnerships, premium and ticket sales teams. Under his leadership, the Canucks achieved significant commercial growth and a new television deal with Rogers Sportsnet through an evolved culture and plan.

Before joining the Canucks, Kalna spent seven seasons with the Pittsburgh Penguins as Chief Revenue Officer (2020–2022) and Senior Vice President of Sales & Broadcasting (2015–2020). During his time in Pittsburgh, he led several milestone initiatives, including the landmark 20-year naming rights agreement for PPG Paints Arena and the organization's first jersey partnership with Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield.

Kalna spent 2001 to 2015 with NASCAR (then International Speedway Corporation), including eight years as Managing Director, Partnership Sales & Marketing. Earlier in his career, he held roles with ISL Worldwide AG and Penske Motorsports.

In addition to his executive experience, Kalna maintains deep ties to hockey. He has served on USA Hockey's Marketing Committee since 2011 and holds a USA Hockey Level 5 coaching certification (2014) as well as a Coach 2 certification from Hockey Canada (2024).

He played youth hockey in Pittsburgh before attending Tabor Academy and later graduating from Hobart College in 1998.

Dan Petrino
Vice President of Hockey Operations

Dan Petrino is in his 11th season with the ECHL. He is in his third season as Vice President of Hockey Operations after serving as Vice President of Hockey Administration during the 2023-24 season.

Petrino is responsible for overseeing all day-to-day operations of the League's Hockey Operations Department, including the application of all ECHL Playing Rules and Regulations in conjunction with the ECHL/PHPA Collective Bargaining Agreement. He will also oversee the Player Discipline Committee which will consist of members from the ECHL League Office and NHL Player Safety Department for review of plays for potential supplementary discipline. He will also be working with the ECHL Equipment Managers, Athletic Trainers and Game Operations staffs on all League-related details.

Prior to joining the ECHL, Petrino spent three years with the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, including the last year as the conference's Assistant Commissioner for Championships. He was responsible for the supervision of in-season and postseason competition for several MAAC sports as well as overseeing officiating operations within his assigned sports.

He joined the MAAC staff in August 2013 after graduation from Rider University, where he received a bachelor's degree in liberal studies and minors in the business of sports and communications. While at Rider, he worked in the school's athletic department, primarily in event and facility operations. He also was part of Rider's club baseball team, serving as vice president and president of the program.

Joe Babik
Senior PR/Historical Specialist

Joe Babik is in his 17th season with the ECHL after joining the league in March 2010.

Babik is responsible for the day-to-day communications efforts of the ECHL, including writing of press releases; oversight of the official league website, ECHL.com; assisting in the layout and design of ECHL printed publications, including the Official Guide and Record Book as well as ongoing contact with ECHL member teams and regional and national media outlets.

Babik joined the league office with seven years of experience in minor league hockey, including six in the ECHL. He began his career as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations with the Pee Dee Pride from 2001-05, while serving in the same capacity for the Fresno Falcons from 2006-08. He was part of the radio broadcast crew for the 2004 ECHL All-Star Game in Peoria, Ill., and following the 2007-08 season, was named as the National Conference recipient of the ECHL Broadcaster of the Year Award. Babik also served a season as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for the Adirondack Frostbite of the United Hockey League in 2005-06.

In 2023, the ECHL's annual Media/PR Director of the Year Award was named in his honor.

The Johnstown, Pa. native received his Bachelor's Degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University in 2001. While at Syracuse, Babik served as both a public relations and broadcast intern with the American Hockey League's Syracuse Crunch from 1998-2001. Babik and his wife, Cristen, are the parents of two sons: Elijah and Landon.

Todd Corliss
Vice President of Finance and Accounting

Todd Corliss is in his 24th season with the ECHL. He was promoted to Vice President of Finance and Accounting in January 2025 after previously serving as the League's Director of Finance.

Corliss is responsible for the accounting, monthly budgeting and financial reporting for the league, as well as tax preparation materials and payroll filings and processing. In addition, he is responsible for the annual ECHL Financial Project, as well as auditing for salary cap compliance.

He was Chief Financial Officer for the Long Beach Ice Dogs from 2002-06 and was responsible for the daily financial matters, including accounting, budgeting, general administration and workman's compensation as well as managing the merchandise, web site design and player immigration. He was Chief Financial Officer for the Texas Wildcatters from 2002-06 while serving in a similar capacity for the Johnstown Chiefs from 2003-05.

Corliss graduated from the University of Massachusetts where he received dual bachelor's degrees in finance and sport management. He and his wife, Amy, have four children, Grace, Ian, Connor and Shannon.

Tara Martinek
Sr. Director of Marketing/Team Business Services

Tara Martinek enters her sixth season with the ECHL in 2026-27, and her third as the Senior Director of Marketing and Team Business Services. In 2024-25, she was the Manager of Marketing and Team Business Services after spending her first two seasons as the League's Office Manager/Marketing Assistant.

Martinek assists the marketing department on licensing, sponsorship program coordination and planning for League-hosted events, while also being responsible for compiling and distributing internal League reports, administering the sales consulting and training program for Member Teams, and coordinating the ECHL Ticket Sales Management University curriculum, amongst various other tasks provided by the League's Team Services Department.

She joined the ECHL after completing her Master's Degree in Global Sports Business at Rutgers University. Schwinn has previous experience with Rutgers Athletics, the United States Amateur Baseball League, PGA of America - NJ Section and Monmouth Race Track. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Sport Management from Rutgers.

Tim Nowak
Director of Officiating Development

Tim Nowak is in his third season as the ECHL's Director of Officiating Development.

In this role, he will serve as the lead in helping to develop on-ice officials in the ECHL through on-site supervision, video sessions and the recruitment of new officiating prospects. Nowak will also serve as a member of the Player Discipline Committee.

Nowak began his career as a linesman in the ECHL before embarking on 26 seasons in the National Hockey League, and was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame in 2022. He worked four seasons in the league, twice earning an assignment working the Riley Cup Finals. He became the first ECHL on-ice official to reach the NHL when he made his debut on Oct. 8, 1993, and he went on to work over 1,700 NHL games in 26 seasons before retiring in 2019. Nowak was selected to work the 2003 All-Star Game, the 2003 Stanley Cup Final, the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the first-ever Winter Classic in 2008. He also was selected to officiate in two Winter Olympics, working games in 2002 in Salt Lake City and 2010 in Vancouver. He served as an ECHL Officiating Development Coach beginning with the 2019-20 season before being hired in his current role.

Casey Terreri
Manager of Officiating Operations

Casey Terreri is in his second season as the ECHL's Manager of Officiating Operations.

Terreri is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the League's Officiating Department including oversight of on-ice officials, administration of rules and directives, travel and administration of officials, communications with the National Hockey League and American Hockey League on ECHL officials, and the ECHL Rule Book.

A native of Warwick, Rhode Islande, Terreri spent the previous six seasons as a referee in the ECHL, and was selected to work the 2019 NHL Prospects Tournament in Traverse City, Michigan, while earning Kelly Cup Playoffs assignments in 2022, 2023 and 2024. In addition to his time with the ECHL, he has also worked as a referee in the AHL since 2019, working nearly 300 games. He worked the Calder Cup Playoffs in each of the last four seasons, and was one of the referees for the 2025 AHL All-Star Classic. He has also worked college hockey games for Hockey East and the Atlantic Hockey Association.

Tim Mayer
Manager of Officiating Development

Tim Mayer is in his third season as the ECHL's Manager of Officiating Development.

In this role, he assists Tim Nowak and Casey Terreri through on-site supervision, as well as making recommendations for recruitment and development of on-ice officials, as well as presenting at the ECHL Officiating Training Camp and Coaches' Meetings.

Mayer spent two seasons as an ECHL referee from 2008-10, and worked over 1,100 career professional games, including more than 700 in the AHL from 2009-22. He also officiated games in the United States Hockey League, Southern Professional Hockey League, Central Hockey League, United Hockey League and International Hockey League. Mayer represented USA Hockey by working five IIHF World Championships, and the 2018 Winter Olympics in Pyeongchang, South Korea, where he was selected to work the bronze medal game. Mayer worked the AHL All-Star Game in 2018, and received the Michael Condon Memorial Award in 2021 for outstanding contributions by an on-ice official. He has spent the previous two seasons as an ECHL Officiating Development Coach and owns and operates his own business, Shoreliners Striping LLC, which specializes in pavement marking and surface striping/field striping.

Byron de Rose
Director of Hockey Administration

Byron de Rose enters his third season with the ECHL as the League's Director of Hockey Administration.

De Rose is responsible for the day-to-day administration of the ECHL Hockey Operations Department including the organization and release of team rosters, salary cap, player background and immigration matters, while also overseeing all transactions and ongoing relations with the PHPA and other leagues.

He joins the ECHL with over five years of experience in the sports industry. Last season, he spent time with both the National Hockey League Toronto Office and the Toronto Blue Jays of Major League Baseball. He served as the All-Star Location Office Coordinator for the NHL, helping to plan and coordinate behind-the-scenes efforts for the 2024 NHL All-Star Game in Toronto. De Rose spent his time with the Blue Jays serving as the Coordinator of Facility Operations, aiding senior management with the operations of the Rogers Centre facility and the Jays' event staff. From 2021-2023, de Rose was Coordinator of Operations and Team Services Assistant for the American Hockey League's Belleville Senators where he supported executive staff with business and event operations. He also assisted with team services, planning and coordinating travel, immigration documents, housing, team facilities upgrades, and team administrative duties.

De Rose received a Bachelor of Sports Management from Brock University in St. Catharine's, Ontario in April of 2021.

Jayla Womack
Manager of Licensing and Administration

Jayla Womack is in her third season with the ECHL, and second as Manager of Licensing and Administration, after serving as the League's Executive/Marketing assistant since October 2024.

In her role, she provides administrative support to League Office while also working with League personnel and ECHL Teams to help coordinate League marketing programs and meetings/events. Womack also facilitates the ECHL Shop including shipping, communication, inventory management and organization and acts as a liaison and League representative for League events and daily administration.

Prior to joining the ECHL, she worked in customer service for Skylands Energy Service and as a receptionist at Hopewell Veterinary Group. Womack has also completed internships with USA Sports Group, where she conducted on-field coaching evaluations, maintained coaching feedback and evaluations and at Perfect Game USA, where she served as scorekeeper for youth baseball tournaments and helped to ensure on time and seamless operations.

Womack received her Associate's Degree in Exercise Science from Raritan Valley Community College in May 2024 and is currently pursuing her Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management at Seton Hall University.

Jackie Skunakis
Manager of Team Services and Events

Jackie Skunakis joined the ECHL as Manager of Team Services and Events in January 2026.

She is responsible for assisting in the planning and coordination of League-hosted events while working closely with teams on the ticketing and marketing plans.

Skunakis joined the ECHL after recently earning her Master of Science in Global Sports Business at Rutgers University. She spent the 2025 season as a Gameday and Events Operations Intern with the National Football League's New York Jets, supporting fan engagement, game presentation and game operations during special events and home games. Skunakis also has experience as a Sports Marketing Intern with Rutgers Athletics Sales and Marketing and as a Sports Nutrition Assistant with the Scarlet Knight's football team.

Adam Pysher
Graphic Design Manager

Adam Pysher joined the ECHL as Graphic Design Manager in April 2026.

In this role, Pysher will be responsible for the development of all external-facing graphics and imagery across social media, web, presentations, print and event environments. He will collaborate across departments to bring campaigns and initiatives to life, ensuring that every creative output aligns with the league's goals, vision and brand standards.

Pysher joined the ECHL from Xfinity Creative, where he designed digital assets for large-scale brand campaigns across email, digital display, on-platform (Xfinity app + Stream Box) and other digital channels. Prior to his time with Comcast, Pysher served as a Graphic Designer for the American Hockey League's Lehigh Valley Phantoms, where he was responsible for designing promotional, sales, and advertising materials across print, digital, social and in-arena environments.

Pysher received a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Graphic and Interactive Design with Entrepreneurial Studies from the Tyler School of Art & Architecture at Temple University in 2024. While in college, he was a graphic designer/design intern for the College of Education & Human Development and the Strategic Marketing & Communications Department at Temple.

Devon Golder
Manager of Social andDigital Media

Devon Golder joined the ECHL as Manager of Social & Digital Media in June 2026.

In this role, Golder is responsible for developing the League's social and digital strategy while also creating content across all platforms. She also serves as the primary liaison to Member Team social media contacts and assists League partners by producing digital content and delivering insights to drive ECHL program and partnership goals through impactful digital campaigns.

Golder joined the ECHL from the American Hockey League's Bridgeport Islanders, where she spent two seasons as Content Production Coordinator and one season as Creative Content Manager. In these roles she developed and executed social media strategy and supported ticket sales and corporate partnerships by producing asset-driven content.

Golder received a Bachelor's Degree in Telecommunications with a Minor in Digital Media Trends and Analytics from Penn State University in 2023. While in college, she was an editing intern with the school's athletic department.

Sylvain Cloutier
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Sylvain Cloutier was named the fifth head coach in Adirondack Thunder history on July 8, 2025. The 52-year-old returned to Glens Falls after beginning his professional career with the Adirondack Red Wings in the 1993-94 season. The native of Mont-Laurier, Quebec played 287 games with Adirondack and totaled 148 points (45g-103a) from 1993-98. Cloutier returned to Adirondack in 2003 and played three seasons with the Frostbite in the United Hockey League. During his playing career, Cloutier was drafted by the Detroit Red Wings in 1992 and played in seven NHL games with the Chicago Blackhawks during the 1998-1999 season. In 565 AHL games with Adirondack, Albany, Houston and Syracuse, Cloutier had 274 points (86g-186a). He also served as a captain and won a Calder Cup with Houston during the 2002-2003 season.Following his playing career, was inducted into the Adirondack Hockey Hall of Fame as part of the 2020 class. Cloutier got behind the bench during the 2008-09 season with the Corpus Christi IceRays in the Central Hockey League before heading overseas to coach the Hull Stingrays in the EIHL from 2009-14. Cloutier returned to Canada to be the head coach and general manager of the Essa Stallions in the CPJHL and led the Stallions to a 106-21-3 record over his three seasons as Head Coach and earned back-to-back CPJHL Championships in 2018 and 2019 while also collecting the 2017-18 regular season championship with a 42-2-0 record. Cloutier returned to Corpus Christi in the 2022-23 season and this past year, he helped lead the IceRays to their best regular season in team history in the North American Hockey League with a 35-19-2-3 record.

Tadd Sipowicz
Interim President

Tadd Sipowicz is the interim President of the Adirondack Thunder after most recently serving as the team's Chief Revenue Officer. Sipowicz has been a key figure in the organization since joining full-time in the 2016-17 season. His leadership has driven significant revenue growth through innovative corporate partnerships and ticket sales strategies, forging strong community ties with local businesses. A native of Hudson Falls, New York, Sipowicz is deeply rooted in the region. Beyond his role with the Thunder, Sipowicz owned the Adirondack Jr. Thunder, a junior hockey team in the Eastern Hockey League Premier, which he established in 2022 to nurture local talent. Known for his community engagement, Sipowicz has spearheaded initiatives like charitable donations and events supporting Glens Falls Hospital and other local causes, earning praise for strengthening the Thunder's regional impact.

Steve Martinson
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Steve Martinson rejoined the Allen Americans for his second stint as head coach on May 12, 2025. In 10 seasons as the club's head coach from 2012-22, he led the Americans to four consecutive championships, capturing Central Hockey League President's Cup titles in 2013 and 2014 and Kelly Cup titles in 2015 and 2016. Martinson has compiled a career ECHL coaching record of 518-305-103 in 13 seasons with Allen, Chicago, Elmira and San Diego and enters the 2026-27 season fifth in league history in games coached (998) and fourth in wins (561). In addition to his four championships with Allen, he led San Diego to five West Coast Hockey League championships and Rockford to a United Hockey League title. Last season, he led the expansion Athens Rock Lobsters of the Federal Prospects Hockey League to a 43-10-3 record to earn league Coach of the Year honors. Prior to coaching at the professional level, he played 14 seasons of pro hockey that included 49 games in the National Hockey League with the Detroit Red Wings, Montreal Canadians, and Minnesota North Stars.

LaSonjia Jack
Owner

LaSonjia Jack is a transformational executive, barrier-breaking sports owner, and inspiring speaker whose journey spans Fortune 100 boardrooms, community leadership, and historic milestones in sports ownership. With over 20 years of senior leadership experience at Cox Communications, Microsoft, AT&T, and T-Mobile, LaSonjia is recognized for her ability to build high-performing teams, drive billions in revenue, and lead organizations through culture shifts, mergers, and large-scale transformations. As the former AVP of Retail and Field Operations at Cox Communications, she oversaw more than 120 retail locations nationwide and played a pivotal role on the Cox Diversity Council, where she advanced equity and representation across the organization. At Microsoft, she helped launch global retail strategies that generated more than $1 billion in online sales, while at AT&T and T-Mobile, she successfully led major merger integrations and groundbreaking product launches—including the first iPhone rollout.In 2023, LaSonjia and her son, NFL veteran Myles Jack, made history as the first African American majority owners in the ECHL, acquiring the Allen Americans professional hockey team. Their ownership marked a defining moment in representation and legacy-building in professional sports. Under their leadership, the team was selected to host the 2026 ECHL All-Star Game. LaSonjia also has D1/HBCU College Basketball Player LaSonjia also sits as Chairman of the Board for ECKA Holdings, a company revolutionizing music intellectual property. Her commitment to community is as strong as her corporate and entrepreneurial success. LaSonjia serves on the board for Habitat for Humanity in Jacksonville, Florida, and the Allen Fairview Chamber of Commerce. Her family foundation, Mylestone, provides scholarships, supports veterans, and funds programs for youth, faith-based organizations, and families in need. LaSonjia is also an author and mentor passionate about empowering the next generation. Her debut book, The Roadmap to Your Journey from Poverty to Plenty, shares lessons of resilience and financial empowerment. She is currently developing a children's book series, The Dream Builders Clubhouse, designed to teach entrepreneurship, teamwork, and cultural pride to young readers. Her work as a breast cancer advocate has earned her recognition as a Pink Award honoree and Shine Award recipient for women championing awareness and equity in healthcare. She is also set to receive the 2025 EKV Presidential Lifetime Award in Tampa for her leadership and advocacy. At the heart of all her endeavors is The LJ Way—a philosophy and brand built on the values of self-worth, equity, courage, empowerment, and legacy. Originally a saying in her household as she raised her children to think boldly and strategically, The LJ Way has become her signature approach to leadership, coaching, and mentorship.

Matt Ginn
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Matt Ginn was named the seventh head coach in Gladiators' team history on May 7, 2025 after serving as the team's assistant coach during the 2024-25 season. In his first season with the team, he was selected to coach in the 2026 Warrior/ECHL All-Star Classic in Atlanta, and led the team to its first playoff appearance since 2022. Prior to joining the Gladiators, Ginn spent the previous two seasons as head coach of the Manchester Storm of the Elite Ice Hockey League in England. In his first season with Manchester in 2022-23, Ginn guided the team to a 22-28-4 record – an improvement from the prior season that helped the Storm qualify for the postseason for the first time since 2021. The Storm continued to improve under Ginn in 2023-24, posting a 27-20-7 record for 61 points, qualifying for the postseason for the second straight season as Ginn earned the EIHL's Coach of the Year Award. A goaltender during his playing days, Ginn appeared in 90 games with the Gladiators from 2015-18 posting a record of 38-41-5.

Jared Youngman
President

Originally from Layton, Utah, Jared Youngman enters his third season with the Atlanta Gladiators. Youngman began his career with the Utah Grizzlies in 1999, starting off as an intern and progressing through roles such as account executive and Director of Ticket Sales. In April 2009, he was named Vice President of the club, a role he held for 15 years. The Grizzlies averaged 6,003 fans per game during the 2023-24 season, which ranked within the top ten of all ECHL teams. This number is the biggest average attendance Utah has had since joining the ECHL. In addition, the Grizzlies had seven games in the 2023-24 season with crowds larger than 8,200 and 11 games of more than 7,500.

Phillip Barski
Head Coach

Phillip Barski was named the first head coach in Bloomington history on May 30, 2024. In 2025-26, he led the Bison to the first playoff appearance in team history. The 47-year-old began his coaching career with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Pickering Panthers in 2013-14, and has gone to spend time in various leagues, including the Ontario Hockey League, USports and various leagues in Europe. He also spent two seasons in the ECHL as an assistant coach with the Greenville Swamp Rabbits from 2020-22. Prior to joining the Bison, Barski had spent the previous two seasons in the OHL as an assistant coach with the Barrie Colts.

Andy Zilch
President

Andy Zilch is in his second season as the Bison's President. He has 15 years of experience in professional hockey and has an array of front office experience ranging from corporate partnership sales, ticket sales, community relations, communications and marketing responsibilities. He joined the Bison in September 2024 and served as the Director of Media Relations and Broadcasting while calling all 36 home games on FloHockey and the Bison Audio Network. He previously worked in the American Hockey League for nine seasons between the San Diego Gulls, Utica Comets and Springfield Falcons. The St. Louis native began his professional career in the ECHL with the Greenville Road Warriors in 2012. Zilch has displayed a strong passion for community involvement over his career. This past season, he made visits to local youth hockey practices as well as elementary schools in the area. He has volunteered for charities and participated in community events such as the Habitat for Humanity, the Shriner's Hospital, the Western Mass Sled Hockey Team and at elementary schools focusing on PARP (Parents as Reading Partners) to encourage young students the importance of reading. Before his professional career, Andy earned a bachelor's degree in 2009 at Lindenwood University.

Riley Weselowski
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Riley Weselowski enters his second season as Cincinnati's head coach and director of hockey operations after being named to the postion on June 5, 2025. Weselowski joins the Cyclones from the Kansas City Mavericks where he served as the Associate Head Coach for the previous two seasons. Under Weselowski's leadership, the Kansas City Mavericks recorded 103 wins, and 217 points over the past two seasons, more than any other ECHL franchise. The Mavericks would claim the 2023-24 Brabham Cup, with the best regular season record that year and advanced to the 2024 Kelly Cup Finals. Additionally, he helped lead Kansas City to two division championships, and back-to-back appearances in the Western Conference Finals. Over the past two seasons, teams under Weselowski have ranked first in the ECHL in goals scored (561) and second in goals allowed (380). His leadership has led to numerous AHL and European contracts for players under his tenure. One of his most critical responsibilities in Kansas City was to build and maintain a strong relationship with NHL and AHL affiliates, something he looks to continue with the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Toronto Marlies. Weselowski, 40, played in over 700 professional games across 13 seasons between the ECHL and Central Hockey League. In 446 ECHL games, the Pilot Mound, Manitoba native recorded 115 points (25g-90a) with five different organizations. Weselowski was named a team captain in each of his final 11 professional seasons. In addition, he was awarded the 2012 CHL Top Defenseman Award and the 2012 CHL Man of the Year Award for his community involvement. The Rapid City Rush retired his number 6 at the conclusion of his playing career.

Ray Harris
Owner/President/CFO

Ray Harris is chief financial officer for Nederlander Company and is responsible for all aspects of the company's financial operations. He is also directly responsible for the management, marketing and sales business in Detroit and Cincinnati including negotiation of third-party contacts and new business opportunities. Harris joined Nederlander in 1984 as controller for several outdoor amphitheaters and in 1986 his responsibilities expanded to include negotiation of national sponsorship contracts for all Nederlander amphitheaters throughout the country. He assisted in negotiation and production of the radio broadcast and preseason television broadcast of the National Football League's Oakland Raiders from 1992-95. Harris was promoted to chief financial officer in 1995 and led the expansion and acquisition of several concert facilities, clubs, theaters and sports arenas. Upon Nederlander's purchase of the Cincinnati Cyclones in 2003, Harris helped build the team into a two-time Kelly Cup champion and a four-time division champion, while setting several ECHL league-attendance records in the process. Harris also served as Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for five seasons from 2015-16 through 2019-20. During his over 30 years with Nederlander, he has been intimately involved in every aspect of the entertainment industry and has served as a leader in evaluating acquisitions of entertainment and sports businesses. Harris received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Walsh College and worked two years in public accounting before joining Nederlander. He was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame in the Builder's Category in 2022.

Brad Ralph
Head Coach/General Manager

Brad Ralph was named the fifth head coach in Everblades' history on July 12, 2016. The 46-year-old led Florida to an unprecedented three consecutive Kelly Cup titles in 2022, 2023 and 2024, and a fourth in five seasons in 2026. Ralph is the ECHL's all-time leader in playoff games coached (188) and playoff wins (121). He is also the ECHL's all-time leader among coaches with four championships. Ralph has amassed a career coaching record of 703-296-108 spread over the Southern Professional Hockey League, Western Hockey League and ECHL. In his ECHL tenure with Idaho and Florida, Ralph has an overall record of 584-242-97 for a .685 career winning percentage, which ranks sixth in ECHL history while he also ranks third all-time in regular-season wins and sixth in games coached. Ralph began his coaching career with the SPHL's Augusta RiverHawks (2010-12), and led his team to the league finals in his first year to garner honors as the SPHL's Coach of the Year. As a player, Ralph appeared in 383 pro games split mainly between the ECHL and American Hockey League, while making his lone NHL appearance with the Phoenix Coyotes during the 2000-01 season.

Craig Brush
President

Craig Brush, Hertz Arena CEO and President of the Florida Everblades, along with partners Peter Karmanos and Thomas Thewes, founded the Everblades and Hertz Arena in 1998. A native of Milton, Ontario, Brush oversees all aspects of both the hockey club and the sports complex. The Everblades have earned a postseason berth 27 times while advancing to the Kelly Cup Finals a League-record eight times. Florida became the first team to win three consecutive ECHL championships in 2022, 2023 and 2024, and along with the team's 2012 and 2026 titles, holds the League record with five championships. During the 2004 and 2005 Kelly Cup Playoffs, the Everblades became the first team in ECHL history to make back-to-back trips to the Kelly Cup Finals. From 2003-06, Brush served as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors. He was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame (Class of 2016) in the Builders category, on Feb. 5, 2016 in a ceremony in Kalamazoo. As a player, Brush played four seasons at Cornell University, where he was a member of the 1970 undefeated NCAA Championship team, which is the only team in collegiate history to accomplish this feat. In addition, he coached in the Compuware youth hockey program for many years. Craig and his wife, Kyle, split time between Estero, Florida and Birmingham, Michigan. The couple has three sons -- Matt, Tyler and Patrick -- as well as five grandchildren, Anna, Mary, Jane, Sloan, and Brett.

Ben Boudreau
Head Coach

Ben Boudreau reurned for his second stint as Fort Wayne's head coach when he was named to the position on June 19, 2026. Boudreau, 41, spent two years with the Komets as an assistant before being promoted to head coach before the 2019-20 season. He returns to the Komets as the seventh-winningest coach in franchise history with a record of 134-96-27. During the 2020-21 season, he led the Komets to the Kelly Cup title, culminating with a win over South Carolina in the Kelly Cup Finals. After departing Fort Wayne, Boudreau spent two seasons on the coaching staff of the Ontario Hockey League's Niagara IceDogs. Boudreau's dad, Bruce, spent two years as the Komets head coach before embarking on a 15-year head-coaching career in the National Hockey League, while also playing with the team for two seasons during his playing career.

David Franke
President of Hockey Operations/Co-Owner

Fort Wayne native David Franke is entering his 36th season as the Komets' General Manager and Co-owner. He began his career with the Komets when the Franke family purchased the Fort Wayne franchise in 1990 while the team was a member of the International Hockey League. While in the IHL, the Komets claimed two Huber Trophies as the team with the best regular season record and guided the club to the Turner Cup Final six times, winning championships in 1993, 2008, 2009, and 2010. Franke was named the IHL's Executive of the Year for the 1990-1991 season. After the team's most significant turnaround in franchise history, Franke was voted the league's General Manager of the Year in 1997-1998. Franke was again named the IHL's General Manager of the Year for the 2009-10 season. While competing in the United Hockey League, Franke guided the team to a Colonial Cup championship in 2003. The team also captured the league's best record in 2002-2003, 2003-2004, and 2006-2007. Before joining the ECHL in 2013, the team won a Presidents' Cup championship in the Central Hockey League in 2012. Franke has been at the helm for seven championships, including claiming the Kelly Cup in 2021.

Mitch Giguere
Head Coach

Mitch Giguere enters his first season as Greensboro's head coach after being named to the position on June 15, 2026. He joins the Gargoyles after spending the last three seasons as an assistant coach with the Wheeling Nailers. Giguere, 40, began his coaching journey in 2008 and has since built a deep resume across roles as a coach, general manager, scout, consultant, and player development specialist while gaining experience in prestigious leagues including the Kontinental Hockey League, Québec Maritimes Junior Hockey League, Quebec Junior Hockey League, Western Hockey League, and Manitoba Junior Hockey League. During the 2021-22 season, Giguere was part of the Longueuil Collège-Français coaching staff, helping lead the team to the Napa Cup championship as champions of the QJHL. He was also a member of the 2022-23 KHL Kharlamov Cup Champion Torpedo Nizhny Novgorod, then led the University of Montréal to a fourth place finish in the nation. Giguere later joined the Nailers in 2023, helping guide the team to the 2025-26 North Division regular season and playoff titles.

Andy Kaufmann
Chief Executive Officer

Andy Kaufmann is a successful entrepreneur and businessman who has been involved in his family business since he was a child. Andy learned a great deal about business from his first real-life hero, his father, and assembled first aid kits for his business in exchange for baseball cards. In 1999, Andy graduated from Emerson College with a degree in marketing and embarked on a mission to build brands. In July 2018, Andy formed a group of Jacksonville-based investors and purchased the ECHL's Jacksonville Icemen, making them the only locally owned sports team in the city. That group has since expanded to include such sports stars as Tim Tebow (Heisman Trophy winner, former NFL player and MLB prospect) and Daniel Murphy (three-time MLB All-Star) are among other successful investors.Since then, Andy has continued to grow Zawyer Sports & Entertainment by purchasing a variety of enterprises including the ECHL's Savannah Ghost Pirates, Greensboro Gargoyles and the AHL's Charlotte Checkers. Zawyer Sports also has a management interest with the ECHL's Tahoe Knight Monsters. Zawyer Sports also owns the Gastonia Ghost Peppers Baseball Club (Atlantic League) and a pair of ice facilities, the Community First Igloo in Jacksonville and Ghost Pirates Ice in Savannah. Zawyer Sports also owns and operates The UPSHOT League, a professional women's basketball league which began play in May of 2026 with teams currently based in Charlotte, Greensboro, Savannah and Jacksonville. In addition, Zawyer Sports formed and operates 32 Degrees Marketing – a full-service agency based in Jacksonville which continues to grow as the business seeks new team and venue opportunities.

Chad Costello
Head Coach/General Manager

Chad Costello was named the sixth head coach in Swamp Rabbits history on June 4, 2025. Costello is in his fourth season as a head coach, and his fifth behind a bench in professional hockey. Previously, he was appointed associate coach of the Rapid City Rush on Dec. 12, 2024, leading the team to an 18-10-4 record while averaging 3.63 goals per game in that span. His efforts helped the Rush finish the season just shy of 20.0% on the power play and propelled the team to eventual ECHL franchise records with an 11-game winning streak and overall 13-game point streak from Feb. 1-March 1. Prior to joining the Rush, Costello was the head coach and general manager of the Allen Americans for a pair of seasons (2022-24), reaching the Kelly Cup Playoffs in both campaigns while compiling a 70-67-7 record. The 40-year-old turned to coaching following a 14-year playing career, the majority of which was played in the ECHL. He notched 561 points (172g-389a) in 375 games with Allen, Ontario, Colorado and Texas. While he garnered ECHL First-Team All-Star and MVP honors with Colorado in 2012, he is best known for his work with Allen, where he was the captain for three of his four seasons. Costello won three consecutive ECHL scoring titles, each with 100-plus-point seasons from 2015-17, back-to-back Kelly Cup Championships in 2015 and 2016, June M. Kelly Playoff MVP honors for the latter, back-to-back ECHL MVP recognitions in 2016 and 2017, and four ECHL All-Star Team Selections.

Tim Vieira
President

Tim Vieira was named the President of the Greenville Swamp Rabbits on Aug. 1, 2023. As President, Vieira oversees the day-to-day operations of the organization. He joined the Swamp Rabbits prior to the start of the 2020-21 campaign as Vice President, followed by a promotion to Executive Vice President and then his current role. A Binghamton, New York native, Vieira's sports experience stems across multiple leagues and sports, including the ECHL, American Hockey League, National Football League, and Minor League Baseball. In hockey, he has previously held positions with the Kansas City Mavericks and Iowa Wild. Before beginning his career, Vieira graduated from Temple University in 2013 with a Bachelor of Science in Sport and Recreation Management.

Everett Sheen
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Everett Sheen enters his seventh season as Idaho's head coach during the 2025-26 season after spending the previous three seasons as the club's assistant coach. Sheen, 39, led the Steelheads to ECHL records in 2022-23 for home wins (32), wins (58) and points (119) as Idaho captured the Brabham Cup for the second time in team history and advanced to the Kelly Cup Finals for the first time since 2010. During his three seasons as assistant coach, the Lethbridge, Alberta native led the defense and penalty kill units, and in 2018-19, the team ranked in the top-10 in penalty kill percentage and shots allowed per game while also sitting in the top-five for goals against per game. In all three seasons, he aided the Steelheads into playoff appearances, helping to extend the organization's playoff streak to 22-straight seasons since the inaugural 1997-98 season. Prior to coaching, Sheen played professional hockey for five seasons with time spent in the ECHL in all five years. He played 319 career ECHL games with the Reading Royals, Ontario Reign and Colorado Eagles, scoring 137 points (48g-89a), including 35 points (13g-22a) during his final season in 2015-16. He also spent time with the AHL's Providence Bruins during the 2011-12 season. Sheen played four seasons of college hockey at College of the Holy Cross, serving as captain in his junior and senior seasons. He lives in Meridian, Idaho with his wife, Kayla, and their sons, Parker and Brooks.

Eric Trapp
President

Eric Trapp is president of Idaho Sports Properties and is responsible for the business operations of the Idaho Steelheads while also serving as the team's representative on the ECHL Board of Governors. Trapp received the ECHL Marketing Director of the Year Award following the team's inaugural season in 2003-04 and was named ECHL Executive of the Year in 2019-20. He has been with the Steelheads since the team's inception in 1997 and was instrumental in the initial introduction, marketing and promotion of the Steelheads. He began his career in professional sports in 1991 with Diamond Sports, which owned and operated the Boise Hawks minor league professional baseball team. After serving as director of marketing for both the Hawks and the Sioux City Explorers baseball teams, Trapp was promoted to vice president of Diamond Sports in 1996 and was responsible for overseeing the company's baseball entities (Boise Hawks, El Paso Diablos and Sioux City Explorers) from 1996-98. Named senior vice president in 1998, the University of Idaho graduate also handled the marketing and promotions for other Diamond Sports entities including the Idaho Sneakers World TeamTennis franchise and professional boxing events hosted at Idaho Central Arena.

Jesse Messier
Head Coach

Jesse Messier was named the fifth head coach in Fuel history on Aug. 21, 2026. Messier brings more than 20 years of experience in hockey as a player and coach across the ECHL, Ontario Hockey League, college hockey and junior hockey, with a track record in player development, special teams, recruiting and team building. Messier most recently served as an assistant coach with the Bloomington Bison, where his responsibilities included overseeing the defense and penalty kill, player development, pre-scouting and special teams, while also working in player recruitment, roster administration and daily team preparation. Prior to joining Bloomington, Messier spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the OHL's Saginaw Spirit. He was a member of Saginaw's 2019 OHL West Division championship staff and worked extensively in player development, special teams and scouting. During his tenure, eleven Spirit players advanced to professional hockey. Messier previously served four seasons as an assistant coach at York University, helping the program win the 2017 Queen's Cup championship and become a perennial playoff contender. York compiled a 63-37-12 regular-season record and a 13-9 playoff record during his tenure. His résumé also includes a highly successful stint as head coach of the Kam River Fighting Walleye in 2023-24. Messier led Kam River to a 39-9-1 record, a regular-season championship and an appearance in the league final. His team finished first in the league in both offense and power play and third in penalty killing. Messier also brings championship experience as a player. He played professionally in the ECHL with the Toledo Walleye and Allen Americans, totaling 17 points (6g-11a) in 60 games. Before turning professional, Messier played at York University, where he was a three-time team MVP, team captain, and finished among the top ten scorers in program history.

Sean Teakle
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Sean Teakle enters his second full season as Jacksonville's head coach after serving as interim head coach for the final 30 games of the 2024-25 season. He led the Icemen to a 13-6-5 record and the club's fourth consecutive postseason appearance. Teakle initially joined the Icemen in the summer of 2024 as an assistant coach after spending the past two seasons with the Ontario Hockey League's Owen Sound Attack. The Mississauga, Ontario resident spent 10 years within the OHL in some capacity. In addition to his time with Owen Sound, Teakle also served as an assistant coach for the Niagara Ice Dogs from 2020-2022 and was a scout with the Ottawa 67's from 2015-20. Prior to the OHL, Teakle was an associate coach with North York Rangers in the Ontario Junior Hockey League also while being the Head Coach of The Hill Academy Prep program (2014-20). Throughout the past 12 years, Teakle has worked as a player development consultant, serving a long list of teams and players for skill development. As a player, Teakle played four years in the OJHL for the Streetsville Derby's, Georgetown Raiders and the Oakville Blades where he won two league championships and appeared in the organization's first National Championship.

Scott Einhorn
President

Scott Einhorn was promoted to president of Zawyer Sports on July 25, 2024. Einhorn started with the Jacksonville Icemen since the team's inception in 2017. Einhorn was recently selected as a Jacksonville Business Journal 2025 40 Under 40 honoree. A runner-up for ECHL Executive of the Year in 2018-19, Einhorn oversees all day-to-day operations for Zawyer Sports & Entertainment, including ticket sales, premium sales, marketing and merchandise. Under Einhorn's guidance, the Jacksonville Icemen have led the ECHL in overall and average attendance in each of the past two seasons, while also leading the league in group sales for three consecutive seasons, while winning the league's Group Sales Department of the Year award three times and were twice voted the number one sports franchise in Jacksonville by Action News Jax. When Zawyer Sports was established in 2019, Einhorn served as Vice President of both the Icemen and Zawyer Sports, and transitioned into the Chief Operation Officer as the company quickly grew. The company started with 12 employees and now employs over 200 talented individuals across all teams and venues. Einhorn has directed teams under the Zawyer umbrella to dozens of ECHL Team Awards and helped guide the Savannah Ghost Pirates to selling out 68 of 72 home games in the team's first two seasons. Prior to helping start up the Icemen, Einhorn oversaw all sales and marketing efforts for the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League. Before that, he led all ticket sales efforts for the Orlando Solar Bears from their inaugural ECHL season, setting ticket records and helping the team earn the league's Ticket Sales Department of the Year award in 2014-15. Einhorn resides in St. John's County with his wife Brianna, their two children and black lab. He attended Binghamton University in New York where he received his BA and MBA.

Joel Martin
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

After serving as the team's assistant coach for the previous three seasons, Joel Martin has named Kalamazoo's head coach/and director of hockey operations on Aug. 15, 2022. During his tenure as an assistant, Martin helped the team clinch a postseason berth and was an integral part of the team's goaltending, defensive and special teams development and performance. Prior to his time as an assistant with the K-Wings, Martin played 15 seasons of professional hockey across every level as a goaltender. Nine of those seasons were spent with the K-Wings, setting multiple franchise records and winning the 2006 United Hockey League Colonial Cup title. Martin retired from playing after the 2017-18 season. His career numbers slot him as the K-Wings current all-time goaltending career leader in games played (422), saves (12,310), wins (229), shutouts (21), and minutes played (24,755). Martin also currently sits top four in every major single-season goaltending statistical category in Kalamazoo Wings history. Martin was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame as part of the 14th class in 2022. He ranks third all-time in ECHL history in goaltender appearances (394), second in minutes played (22,962), fifth in wins (200) and tied for eighth in shutouts (15). A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Martin moved to Three Hills, Alberta as a young child. He quickly established himself as a budding talent and spent three seasons in the Western Hockey League with Lethbridge, Tri-City, Vancouver and Calgary. Martin joins Cincinnati Cyclones' head coach Jason Payne as the only two black head coaches in men's professional hockey. Both are active members of the NHL Coaches Association BIOPC (Black, Indigenous and People of Color), and the hire is the fourth head coach of color in the ECHL's 35-year history. As the seventh BIPOC head coach in men's professional hockey history, Martin also joins Dirk Graham (Chicago Blackhawks, NHL, 1998-99), John Paris, Jr. (Atlanta Knights, IHL, 1994-1995), Shawn Wheeler (Charlotte Checkers, ECHL, 1998-2000), Graeme Townsend (Macon Whoope, Greensboro Generals, CHL/ECHL, 1999-2002), and Leo Thomas (Macon Mayhem, SPHL, 2018-2019).

Toni Will
Governor/General Manager

A lifelong resident of the Kalamazoo area, and a proud Western Michigan University graduate, Toni Will arrived to the Kalamazoo Wings Hockey Club in March 2015, as the team's director of sales. Since then, her sole effort has been to help continue the year-over-year growth of the hockey club's corporate partnerships and attendance growth. In early 2017, Daniels was named as the team's alternate governor and business operations director and oversees the day-to-day operations of the team. Prior to her tenure with the Wings, she spent time in banking and was chamber executive vice president at Southwest Michigan First, where her efforts were centered towards the growth of small business in the Chamber of Commerce. As an active member of the community, Daniels sits on the boards of Buy Local Kalamazoo, the Trikats Triathlon Club, the Kalamazoo Strong Organization and the Friends of Kalamazoo Parks and Rec. Daniels is an avid athlete who has completed over 50 triathlons, 20 half-marathons, four full marathons, and two Ironman competitions.

Tad O'Had
Head Coach/General Manager

The 2026–27 season marks Tad O'Had's seventh year at the helm of the Kansas City Mavericks. O'Had has led Kansas City to three consecuive Mountain Division titles, as well as Brabham Cup championships and appearances in the Kelly Cup Finals two times in three seasons. In 2024-25, O'Had became the winningest coach in both Mavericks franchise history and Kansas City professional hockey history, while also recording his 200th win as Kansas City's head coach on April 12. A native of Yakima, Washington, O'Had joined Kansas City after seven seasons with the Florida Everblades, serving three years as assistant coach and four years as associate head coach. He was a key member of Florida's defensive success, recruiting efforts, penalty kill, and strength & conditioning programs. Behind the bench for nearly 500 regular-season games and 67 postseason contests, O'Had helped the Everblades to a .699 winning percentage, six playoff berths, five South Division titles, a 2017–18 Brabham Cup, two Eastern Conference Finals appearances, and a Kelly Cup Final appearance. Before his time with the Everblades, O'Had served as head coach and general manager of the Florida Jr. Blades, steering the program to a 112-19-8 record, two USA Hockey Nationals appearances, multiple regular-season titles, and the 2017 USPHL National Championship. Growing up in the Tri-Cities area of Washington, O'Had gravitated towards hockey. He played three years at Millbrook Prep School in New York, junior hockey in the Ontario Provincial Hockey League with the Port Huron Clippers, and collegiate hockey at Connecticut College, where he was team captain. Off the ice, O'Had was a founding member of BlueStreak Sports Training. In 2009, he became Vice President of Hockey for Athletic Republic Headquarters, overseeing 167 training facilities across the USA, Canada, and Russia, earning the Dick Vraa Award for his contributions to the network. In 2017, he was recognized on Gulfshore Business Magazine's Top 40 Under 40 list, honoring influential leaders in Southwest Florida.

Rick Kowalsky
Head Coach/General Manager

Rick Kowalsky was named the fourth head coach in Mariners history on Aug. 6, 2025. Kowalsky has over 20 years of experience coaching in professional hockey, including three as an assistant with the New Jersey Devils and 11 as a head coach in the American Hockey League. The 53-year-old was most recently the head coach of the AHL's Bridgeport Islanders, where he spent the past four seasons, initially as assistant coach before taking over the head job in 2023. Prior to Bridgeport, Kowalsky worked his way up the coaching ladder in the New Jersey Devils organization, rising all the way from the ECHL to the NHL. He secured his first head coaching job with the ECHL's Trenton Titans in 2006, spending four seasons there before being elevated to the head job with the AHL's Albany Devils in 2010. He was named AHL Coach of the Year in 2016, leading the team to a 46-20-10 record. After eight seasons with New Jersey's AHL club (including his final season in Binghamton), the Devils moved him to the NHL bench to become an assistant coach in 2018.Kowalsky is in the ECHL Hall of Fame, a member of the 2017 induction class. He skated in 516 games over a 10-year playing career and remains among the league's top 20 all-time point scoring leaders, with 550. He was a two-time ECHL All-Star and hoisted the Kelly Cup in his final season with Trenton in 2005, when he was also the captain of the team. He was the ECHL Coach of the Year in 2009.A native of Simcoe, Ontario, Kowalsky played in 183 AHL games, over half which were in Portland, with Pirates. In three seasons in Portland from 1996-99, he put up 72 points in 108 games. He was selected by the Buffalo Sabres in the 10th round (277th overall) of the 1992 NHL Entry Draft.

Dexter Paine
Owner/Governor

Dexter Paine is a lifelong athlete, an accomplished businessman, and a global sport leader. Paine purchased the Mariners from Comcast Spectacor in 2024. A business executive with over three decades of private equity experience, Dexter is Chairman of Paine Schwartz Partners, a leading global private equity firm focused on investing in sustainable food & agribusiness. He co-founded the firm in 1997 and has been at the forefront of his industry, investing in the global food and agricultural industry and serving as a respected speaker on the business sector. During his career, Dexter has chaired many private and public companies, is involved in numerous not-for-profit organizations, and is the Chairman Emeritus of Holderness School. A lifelong sports enthusiast and NCAA ski racer while on the Williams College Ski Team, he served as chairman of the Olympic governing body U.S. Ski and Snowboard for 13 years. During his tenure, the organization saw its greatest success in history, earning 56 Olympic medals, establishing a strong business model, and providing athletes with a platform for Olympic success. For four years prior to his term as chairman of the Olympic governing body, he also served as president of the organization's Foundation. Dexter also serves on the Board of US Biathlon and, US Olympic & Paralympic Committee. He extended his sport leadership to a global platform, serving since 2014 as an elected member of the International Ski Federation's Council. Paine has also served on the executive committee for the 2015 FIS World Alpine Ski Championships in Vail/Beaver Creek and the 2019 World Freeski, Freestyle, and Snowboard Championships in Utah. He was the 2020 recipient of the Julius Blegen Award, the highest honor bestowed for service by U.S. Ski & Snowboard.

Jared Johnson
General Manager

Originally from Knoxville, Tennessee, Johnson is a University of Tennessee alum who previously worked for the Knoxville Ice Bears and Huntsville Havoc of the SPHL. He enjoys spending time with his fiancée, Lindsey, and their wiener dog, Nugget, and cheering on the Volunteers.

Zack Stortini
Head Coach

Zack Stortini was named the first head coach in New Mexico's team history on June 20, 2026. Stortini spent the last four seasons as an assistant coach with the Tucson Roadrunners of the American Hockey League following three seasons with the Ontario Hockey League's Sudbury Wolves. Throughout his coaching career, he has developed a reputation for connecting with players and helping establish strong team cultures while working alongside several NHL prospects. Before transitioning behind the bench, Stortini played 14 professional seasons, including 257 NHL games with the Edmonton Oilers and Nashville Predators. Widely respected for his toughness, work ethic, and leadership during his playing career, he also won two Calder Cup championships in the American Hockey League, including a 2019 title with the Charlotte Checkers.Away from the rink, Stortini was also recognized for his impact in the community. During his time in Charlotte, he earned the team's IOA/American Specialty AHL Man of the Year award for his charitable and community involvement efforts.

Jeff Carr
Head Coach

The 2026-27 season marks Jeff Carr's fourth full season as Norfolk's head coach after first taking over on Nov. 7, 2022. In 2023-24, he led the Admirals to a 42-point improvement over the 2022-23 season, and to the team's first Kelly Cup Playoffs berth since returning to the ECHL in the 2015-16 season. Carr joined the Admirals as an assistant coach in August 2022 after spending the previous five seasons as the head coach of the Southern Professional Hockey League's Knoxville Ice Bears. He was named the 2021-22 SPHL Coach of the Year after leading the Ice Bears to a 42-10-8 record, which was the franchise's first regular season title since 2009 while the 42 wins set an all-time SPHL record. In five seasons under Carr's leadership, the Ice Bears' overall record was 151-83-24. The Eagle River, Wisconsin native began his coaching career in 2012-13 as an assistant coach with the Western State Hockey League's Salt Lake City Moose. He was promoted to head coach for the next two seasons in which the Moose secured playoff births. After a brief stint with the Odgen Mustangs in the WSHL, Carr was named the assistant coach of the ECHL's Utah Grizzles in 2016-17 before joining Knoxville in 2017-18.

Patrick Cavanagh
Chief Executive Officer

Patrick Cavanagh enters his seventh season as the Owner and Chief Executive Officer of the Norfolk Admirals. In 1989, Cavanagh began his professional hockey career at the age of 19 which was followed by an ECHL championship with the Hampton Roads Admirals in 1991. He was nominated to the Professional Hockey Players Association's Executive Committee by his peers, which led to the ECHL's initial Central Bargaining Agreement (CBA). Always an advocate for the grassroots of youth hockey development in the United States, Cavanagh founded the "Cavanagh's Developmental Hockey Program" (CDHP) in 1990. The program operated in over 30 states & provinces in North America, reaching unprecedented success. That success was due in part to the "break your comfort zone" development model, which changed the way "hockey schools" were operated. Cavanagh followed that up with the purchase of the previously failed Arc Ice Sports in 2003 and rebranded the building as the Chilled Ponds Ice Sports Complex. The facility received a comprehensive overhaul which included every aspect of design, operations, and functionality. The immediate corporate success of Chilled Ponds led to Cavanagh's recognition by Inside Business as one of the region's "Top 40/under 40" in 2003. After the successful launch of the Hampton Roads Whalers youth hockey organization in 2006, Cavanagh was a pioneer in the formation of the Whalers junior hockey franchise. Overcoming the restrictive, geographic, and competitive obstacles, the Whalers became the first Southeastern junior hockey franchise and provided players with athletic and scholastic opportunities within the sport of hockey that were previously offered only in traditional hockey regions of the United States. His expectation for excellence was immediately realized when the Whalers won the league championships in their first two seasons and set an unprecedented, operational standard by winning eight league and national championships in 13 seasons. This achievement led to over 200 university commitments and players being promoted to higher levels of play. Cavanagh purchased the Norfolk Admirals franchise in July 2019. He continues his tradition of transforming struggling or failed businesses into tremendous successes.

Matt Macdonald
Head Coach/General Manager

Matt Macdonald was named the sixth head coach in Solar Bears history on July 10, 2025. The 43-year-old spent the previous last five seasons as an assistant coach in the American Hockey League, most recently with the Bridgeport Islanders (2023-25), and previously with the Grand Rapids Griffins (2018-23). Macdonald also spent six seasons behind the bench for the Cincinnati Cyclones, including four years as head coach and director of hockey operations. In those four seasons, the Cyclones tallied a 142-116-30 record and two appearances in the Kelly Cup Playoffs. As a player, the Niagara Falls, Ontario native skated in seven professional seasons as a defenseman logging 385 career games between the Central Hockey League (2005-06), ECHL (2006-09), AHL (2007-09), Italy (2009-10; 2011-12) and Denmark (2010-11). He combined for 133 points (30g-103a), and 601 penalty minutes. Macdonald also appeared in 66 playoff games in his playing career, 44 as a member of the Cyclones, where he scored 14 points (5g-9a), earned 71 penalty minutes, and helped lead Cincinnati to its first ever Kelly Cup title in 2008. Macdonald played college hockey at St. Lawrence University (2001-05), where he had 30 points (14g-16a) in 118 games.

Dave Smith
Head Coach/General Manager

Dave Smith was named the fifth head coach in Rapid City team history on June 23, 2025. Smith joined the Rush with 27 years of coaching experience, all at the NCAA Division I level. He most recently served as head coach at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute for the last eight seasons (2017-25). He previously led Canisius College for 12 years (2005-17), where he guided the program to its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2013. In total, Smith brings 712 games of head coaching experience to Rapid City. Smith's coaching career began as an assistant coach with Miami University, Bowling Green State University and Mercyhurst College for a combined total of seven years (1998-2005). He has developed an extensive list of talent who advanced to play professionally, including Cory Conacher, Kevin Bieksa, former Rush defenseman Carl Hudson, and Jordan Sigalet, the Calgary Flames' longtime goaltending coach. As a player, Smith spent six years at the professional level as a forward, five of which came in the International Hockey League. He won the 1993 Turner Cup with the Fort Wayne Komets. Smith is an ECHL alumnus, having played his rookie year with the Dayton Bombers. Overall, he played 448 professional games, totaled 324 points, and accumulated 1,370 penalty minutes. Smith graduated from Ohio State University in 1992, where he was team captain and a four-year letterwinner.

Jared Reid
President

Jared Reid joined the Rush front office in April 2019, and is currently entering his eighth season with the team. He spent three years as the team's Vice President of Sales, and in the summer of 2022, was promoted to Chief Ticket Officer of Spire Sports & Entertainment, the Rush's parent company. He couldn't stay away from Rapid City, and in May 2023, he was named President of the Rush. He most recently worked at Michigan International Speedway as Senior. Manager of Consumer Sales & Premium Seating. Prior to that he worked for the Kansas City Mavericks as the Director of Ticket Sales. A native of Detroit, Michigan, he started his foray into sports working for Sprint Center in Kansas City, as well as the Kansas City T-Bones of the American Association of Independent Baseball. Jared refereed minor pro and junior hockey for over 10 years, skating in various leagues including the North American Hockey League, United States Hockey League, International Hockey League, Central Hockey League and the ECHL. He attended Central Michigan University, earning his bachelor's degree in 2009.

Anthony Peters
Head Coach/General Manager

Anthony Peters was named the 10th head coach in Royals' history on June 20, 2025 after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach with the Florida Everblades. With Peters on staff, the Everblades went 89-38-17, as well as 26-12 the Kelly Cup Playoffs, and captured their third consecutive Kelly Cup championship in 2024, as well as their fourth-straight Eastern Conference Finals appearance in 2025. Prior to beginning his coaching career in 2023-24 with Florida, Peters played eight full seasons of professional hockey as a goaltender with stints in the AHL, ECHL, and overseas in Germany, Sweden, Austria and Slovakia. He opened his professional career in the ECHL with Florida in 2015 and went on to play 100 regular-season games in goal for the Everblades over parts of three seasons through the 2016-17 campaign. He compiled a 60-31-4 record in his time with the team and made 12 Kelly Cup Playoff game appearances for Florida between their postseason runs in 2016 and 2017.In parts of four AHL seasons, Peters appeared in 51 games between the Rochester Americans, Charlotte Checkers and Wilkes/Barre-Scranton Penguins. Following five professional seasons in North America, Peters backstopped HC Slovan Bratislava to the Slovakian Extraliga Championship in 2021-22. In the ensuing season, his last of his professional playing career, Peters went 21-16-0 in 37 games, with a 2.74 GAA and a .910 save percentage.Prior to his professional playing career, Peters was a netminder at St. Mary's University where he earned the accolades of a selection to the CIS all-rookie team in 2011-12, all-Canadian team and CIS Goaltender of the Year honor in 2014-15 and captured a gold medal at the 2013 Winter Universiade in Italy, where he went 4-0 in net for Team Canada.

David Farrar
President

David Farrar enters his eighth full year with the Royals after initially being named the team's general manager on Feb. 21, 2019. Farrar is responsible for the overall management, promotion and day-to-day operation of the hockey team. Farrar, who previously served as general manager of Santander Arena and Santander Performing Arts Center, brings established and well-documented knowledge of the Reading/Berks County market to the position. During his tenure in the position the two buildings posted numerous record shattering attendance and revenue results, as well as a record-setting financial year across the 2017-2018 fiscal year. His experience includes administration, operations, marketing, budgeting, booking, and event operations for arenas and theaters. He spent the past year as the Director of Booking for Oak View Group Facilities at Rupp Arena in Lexington, Kentucky. Farrar is a 2005 graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University with a Bachelor's Degree from the Sports Management Program. He also received his M.D. in Sports Administration from VCU in 2007. He is an active member of the International Association of Venue Managers, and a graduate of the International Association of Venue Management. He and his wife Claire, have three children, Cole, Madelyn and Ashtyn.

Jared Staal
Head Coach

Jared Staal was named Ghost Pirates' head coach on May 28, 2024. Last season, he led the team to the Kelly Cup Playoffs for the first time in team history. Staal joined Savannah after serving as an assistant coach for the Charlotte Checkers of the American Hockey League for the previous two seasons. Before Charlotte, the Thunder Bay, Ontario native held the same role with the Orlando Solar Bears from 2019-22. Prior to his coaching career, Staal played nine years professionally in North America, including 97 games in the ECHL with the South Carolina Stingrays and the Florida Everblades. His AHL playing tenure consisted of 232 games with Charlotte, the San Antonio Rampage and the Providence Bruins. The Phoenix Coyotes selected Staal in the second round of the 2008 NHL Draft; he appeared in two NHL games with the Carolina Hurricanes in 2013. Jared is the younger brother of Eric, Marc and Jordan Staal.

Jesse Kallechy
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Jesse Kallechy was named the 14th head coach in Stingrays history on June 16, 2026. Kallechy joins the Stingrays following three seasons as head coach of the Fort Wayne Komets, where he most recently guided the Komets to a first-place finish in the Central Division during the 2025-26 season and led the club to the Western Conference Finals. The season followed a second-place finish in the division in 2024-25. Prior to Fort Wayne, Kallechy was also part of three championship teams as an assistant coach, including the Florida Everblades' back-to-back Kelly Cup championships in 2022 and 2023 and the 2018 Southern Professional Hockey League's President's Cup champion Huntsville Havoc.He was named the Southern Professional Hockey League's Coach of the Year in 2019-20 after leading the Fayetteville Marksmen to a 31-6-9 record and a share of first place in the league standings while in his second season with Fayetteville.

Todd Halloran
Governor

Todd Halloran became the majority owner of the Stingrays in April 2018 through his investment entity Deke Hockey Holdings LLC. Todd is a partner at Freeman Spogli & Co., a Los Angeles and New York-based private equity firm with approximately $2 billion under management. Freeman Spogli is dedicated to partnering with management in U.S.-based consumer-related growth businesses providing capital, strategic and financial counsel, and focused industry experience. Over his 23 years at Freeman Spogli, Halloran has worked with and served on the board of directors for a number of public and private companies. He currently serves on the boards of four private companies. In addition, Halloran has been a board member and/or involved with a number of philanthropic and not-for-profit organizations, including organizations focused on underprivileged groups, education and youth sports. He is currently a board member of The Community Fund, a Trustee Emeritus at Colby College and the former president of the Darien (CT) Youth Hockey Association, one of the largest youth hockey organizations in the country. Born and raised in the Boston area, Halloran attended Colby College and graduated with a B.A. in Economics. He also studied for a year at The London School of Economics and earned his MBA at Harvard University. After graduating from Harvard, he worked at Goldman Sachs for five years in the Mergers & Acquisitions Group and the Principal Investment Area (GS Capital Partners). Halloran currently splits his time between South Carolina and CT/NY. He and his family are passionate hockey fans. He grew up playing hockey in a skating family and has four children who all grew up playing the sport including one currently playing collegiate hockey.

Rob Concannon
President/Alternate Governor

Rob Concannon is in his 17th season as president of South Carolina Last season, he receiced the Blake Cullen Award as ECHL Executive of the Year. Born in Dorchester, Mass., Concannon played for the Stingrays from 1995 to 2000, was a member of the 1997 Kelly Cup championship team and was inducted into the Stingrays Hall of Fame in 2004. He retired from hockey with the sixth most games played in Stingrays history at 330, and sixth all-time with 231 points (111g-120a). Prior to turning pro, Concannon was a Division III All-American in 1995 with Salem State College. In addition to the Stingrays, Concannon skated for the Idaho Steelheads and Greenville Grrrowl during his eight-year hockey career. Rob and his wife Keri reside in downtown Charleston with their two children, John Robert and Ella.

Connor Jones
Head Coach

Connor Jones enters his first season as Tahoe's head coach after being named to the position on July 28. Jones joins the Knight Monsters from Princeton University, where he spent the last two seasons as an assistant coach, helping lead the Tigers to 30 wins. Prior to Princeton, Jones served as a college scout for the Vegas Golden Knights organization from 2022-24. During his playing days, Jones competed in 153 collegiate games with Quinnipiac University, where he served as an alternate captain in his final two seasons. In his professional career, he skated in 290 AHL games with the Oklahoma City Barons and Bridgeport Sound Tigers, 79 ECHL games for the Bakersfield Condors and Fort Wayne Komets and four National Hockey League games with the New York Islanders during the 2016-17 campaign. Jones also spent the 2019-20 season overseas in Switzerland with HC Thurgau, racking up 27 points (8g-19a) in 44 games, ranking third on the team. The Montrose, British Columbia native also played overseas the following year with Västerviks IK in Sweden, where he played alongside his twin brother, Kellen.

Pat Mikesch
Head Coach

Pat Mikesch was named the fourth head coach in Toledo Walleye history on July 13, 2023, taking over for Dan Watson, who was named head coach of Toledo's American Hockey League affiliate, the Grand Rapids Griffins. In 2024-25, Mikesch led the Walleye to the Kelly Cup Finals for the third time in five postseasons and the Conference Finals for the fifth consecutive postseason. Mikesch previously was head coach and general manager of the United States Hockey League's Green Bay Gamblers from 2014-22, compiling an overall record of 214-200-48. From 2011-14, he was Green Bay's assistant coach under the direction of head coach Derek Lalonde, who went on to serve as the Walleye's head coach from 2014-16. While at Green Bay, he coached and assisted in the development of nearly 30 players who were drafted by the NHL, including Casey Mittelstadt, Nick Schmaltz, Jordan Schmaltz, Andrew Peeke, Andy Welinski, Mason Lohrei, and Gustav Olofsson. Prior to joining Green Bay, Mikesch was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Michigan Tech University, from 2004-11. The 53-year-old had a nine-year professional playing career, which included two stints in the ECHL. He had five goals in four games with the Louisville RiverFrogs in 1995-96 and posted 60 points (23g-37a) in 45 games with the Florida Everblades in 1998-99. He also skated for Kentucky and New Haven in the American Hockey League and Orlando in the International Hockey League, in addition to seeing time in leagues in Germany. During his collegiate career at Michigan Tech, Mikesch recorded 169 points (57g-112a) in 153 games from 1992-96.

Chuck Weber
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Chuck Weber was named the first head coach in Ironhawks' history on June 15, 2026. Weber has been guiding teams at all levels of hockey to success, including winning the Kelly Cup with Cincinnati 2008 and 2010 and the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year in 2008. The 53-year-old Weber is returning to his coaching roots in Trenton, where he served as an assistant coach of the Trenton Titans under Peter Horachek in 2001-02. As head coach in six ECHL seasons, Weber has compiled a 233-167-51 record. Weber also collected championships as assistant coach of the International Hockey League's Orlando Solar Bears (2001) and Elite Ice Hockey League's Coventry Blaze. As an assistant coach, his D1A Great Britain team won the Goal Medal in the D1A World Championships in 2024 and 2026.

Bob Ohrablo
President

Bob Ohrablo brings more than 41 years of experience in professional sports management and a passion for hockey, fan entertainment and marketing. Throughout his career, Bob has held leadership roles in the AHL and NHL, including with the Florida Panthers, before launching ECHL teams in Jacksonville, Savannah and Orlando. He later served as President of Zawyer Sports, where he managed several ECHL teams and helped grow professional hockey in markets across the country. With a long history of building professional hockey organizations, Bob is excited to bring ECHL hockey to Trenton and the surrounding region while providing affordable, family-friendly entertainment for the community. His experience across multiple professional hockey markets has given him a deep understanding of what it takes to build a successful organization both on and off the ice. Bob is also committed to giving back to the Trenton community. He is active with the Boys & Girls Club of Trenton and serves on the boards of the Hamilton YMCA and Princeton-Mercer Chamber of Commerce.

Ron Choules
Head Coach/General Manager

Ron Choules was named head coach and general manager of the Trois-Rivières Lions on Aug, 22, 2023. In 2024-25, he led the Lions to their first division title in team history en route to capturing the 2025 Kelly Cup title with a 4 games to 1 victory over Toledo in the Kelly Cup Finals. During his palying career, Choules totaled 206 points (94g-112a) in 209 career games in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League with Hull, Trois-Rivières and Quebec. A 12th round selection (228th overall) of the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, he went on to skate in 31 career professional games in the American Hockey League and International Hockey League from 1983-86. Following the completion of his playing career, he spent 13 seasons as a coach in the QMJHL, including six seasons as head coach from 2007-13 with Acadie-Bathurst and Cape Breton.

Alex Cousineau
President

Alex Cousineau became the youngest President in ECHL history when he was promoted to the position on April 14, 2025. Cousineau joined the Lions as hockey operations coordinator during the team's inaugural 2021-22 season. He has since risen through the team's ranks, becoming assistant general manager of hockey operations during the 2023-24 season. He was named vice president of business development when Spire Holdings acquired the Lions in spring 2024, and subsequently became executive vice president in fall 2024.

Rob Murray
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Rob Murray enters his 10th season with the Tulsa Oilers after spending the previous six seasons as head coach of the Alaska Aces. He enters the 2026-27 season third in ECHL history with 1,070 games coached and fifth with 520 wins. In 2018-19, Murray was runner-up for the ECHL Coach of the Year award and was named ECHL General Manager of the Year after leading to the Oilers to their first division title since the 1975-76 season, when they won the regular season and playoff championship in the six-team Central Hockey League. The Oilers qualified for the Kelly Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2015 with a 16-point improvement over the 2017-18 season and advanced to the Western Conference Finals. In 2013-14, Murray led the Aces to an ECHL record fourth consecutive - and Murray's third straight - Brabham Cup as ECHL regular-season champions with 97 points and to the team's third Kelly Cup title with a 4 games to 2 win over Cincinnati. In his first season with the Aces in 2011-12, Murray was named a co-recipient of the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year, leading the club to its sixth division title in nine ECHL seasons. Prior to joining Alaska, Murray spent eight seasons with the Providence Bruins of the American Hockey League. He was the club's assistant coach from 2004-08, working alongside former ECHL player and coach Scott Gordon. When Gordon was hired as head coach of the New York Islanders prior to the 2008-09 season, Murray was elevated to head coach in Providence. In his first season as head coach, Murray led the P-Bruins to a 43-29-8 record and a berth in the Eastern Conference Finals. He finished his three-year tenure with a 117-103-20 regular-season record. While in Providence, he coached seven players who went on to win the Stanley Cup with Boston in 2011. Prior to his coaching career, Murray enjoyed a 16-year playing career that included 107 National Hockey League games with Washington, Winnipeg and Phoenix. Murray ranks seventh in American Hockey League history with 1,018 games played and is second with 2,940 career penalty minutes and in 2017, he was inducted ino the AHL Hall of Fame. Over 500 of his AHL games came with the Springfield Falcons, and he is that club's all-time leader in games played, assists, career penalty minutes and single-season penalty minutes. Murray's number 23 was retired by the Falcons, making him one of just two players in team history to have his jersey retired, alongside Hockey Hall of Famer Eddie Shore. Murray and his wife Carolyn have five children - Taylor, Zack, Quinn, Brendan and Mackenzie.

Taylor Hall
General Manager

Entering his 19th season as General Manager, Hall oversees all day-to-day operations of the Oilers' front office. From forming partnerships with local businesses to increasing attendance and ensuring a memorable fan experience, Hall is involved in every aspect of the Oilers' operation. With his infectious enthusiasm for the game of hockey, Hall has played an integral role in expanding the Oilers' fan base and increasing the visibility of the team in the community. A native of Regina, Saskatchewan, Hall formed a deep connection to the Oilers as a player-assistant coach for the during Tulsa's run to the Central Hockey League championship in 1993. In addition to playing for the Oilers, Hall's 12-year professional career included time with the NHL's Vancouver Canucks and Boston Bruins. Hall retired with the Oilers in 1996 and spent five seasons as a head coach in the Central Hockey League.

Nate DiCasmirro
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Nate DiCasmirro was named the 22nd head coach in Wheeling history on July 20, 2026. The 47-year-old joins the Nailers after most recently serving as the associate coach for the Graz 99ers in Austria's ICE Hockey League. The 99ers experienced a 54-point improvement during his first season with the club in 2024-25, then won the league's championship this past season with a perfect 12-0 record in the playoffs. His first coaching job came with the United States Hockey League's Des Moines Buccaneers, when he worked under former Nailers Assistant Coach Gene Reilly. The Buccaneers finished fourth in the Western Conference, and won their opening round playoff series.

After one-year stops with EC-KAC II of the Alps Hockey League and St. Cloud of the North American Hockey League, Nate advanced to the American Hockey League, where he spent three seasons. In 2021-22 and 2022-23, he was an assistant coach for the Iowa Wild under Head Coach Tim Army. The 2022-23 campaign resulted in one of two playoff appearances in Iowa's 13-year history. In 2023-24, he worked under former Nailer Colin Chaulk as an assistant coach for the Bakersfield Condors. Bakersfield won 39 games that season - the club's second highest total in 11 AHL seasons. The native of Atikokan, Ontario enjoyed a long 17-year professional playing career, with seven seasons in the American Hockey League, then ten seasons throughout Europe.

Brian Komorowski
Governor/President

Brian Komorowski joined the Regional Economic Development Partnership (RED) in 1998, having graduated from Bethany College with an Accounting Degree in 1996. Brian has been active in economic development in West Virginia, and is the initial point of contact for various leading programs. His current position with RED is Vice President/Chief Financial Officer, in which he handles deal structuring, lease and tenant management, and building maintenance. Brian is active in many community organizations, including the Wheeling Area Chamber of Commerce, West Virginia Economic Development Council, and Wheeling Area Soccer Association, among others. In 2012, Brian joined the Nailers, then became the team's Alternate Governor in 2013, and handled all day to day operations. In 2020, he took over as President and Governor. Brian and his wife Jen reside in Wheeling with their three children - Andrew, Thomas, and Meredith.

Travis Clayton
Head Coach

Travis Clayton enters his first season as Wichita's head coach after being named to the position on May 12, 2026. Clayton spent the previous two seasons as the team's assistant coach. The Paradise Hill, Saskatchewan native began his coaching career with the Western States Hockey League's Dallas Snipers in 2012-13. Clayton transitioned back to Canada, where he took the helm of the Lloydminster Bobcats U18 AAA team for three seasons. He finished with the Alberta Junior Hockey League's Whitecourt Wolverines during the 2021-22 year before coming to Wichita.During his playing career, Clayton spent 11 seasons in Wichita. He finished his career with the Bossier-Shreveport, playing two seasons with the Mudbugs. Clayton won his first President's Cup Trophy with Bossier-Shreveport during the 2010-11 season, tallying 13 points (3g-10a) in 21 playoff games. Clayton was one of the faces of the franchise during his time in Wichita. He is near the top of every single offensive category in team history, sitting second in goals (326), second in assists (508), second in points (834), second in games played (696), first in power play goals (110), second in penalty minutes (1,063), first in shorthanded goals (26), first in game-winning goals (50) and first in plus/minus (+108). He finished his playing career with 983 points (382g-601a) in a league-record 880 Central Hockey League games. Clayton is one of just five players in team history to have his number retired, joining Ron Handy, Bobby Desjardins, Rob Weingartner and Jason Duda as the only players in the team's 34-year history to receive that honor.

Joel T. Lomurno
General Manager

A native of Moorestown, New Jersey, Lomurno graduated from La Salle University in Philadelphia in 1992. He started with the Thunder in 1993 as an intern and is entering his 34th season with the team. Following the internship, he has worked in almost every department within the organization. Lomurno moved into ticket sales in 1994 and eventually became the director of public relations and play-by-play announcer through 2004, when he was promoted to assistant general manager. During that time, he even dressed for two games as emergency goaltender. Lomurno became general manager of the Thunder in 2008, and was charged with running both the Thunder and the expansion Wichita Wingnuts of the American Association of Professional Baseball, until the Wingnuts were sold to a local ownership group in 2010. Lomurno was twice named Central Hockey League Public Relations Executive of the Year (2000 and 2006), was a finalist for the CHL Executive of the Year Award in both 2013 and 2014 and was named ECHL Executive of the Year in 2022. Lomurno was elected to the Wichita Sports Hall of Fame in 2022. Joel and his wife, Miranda, have two daughters - Cincy and Charlotte.

Michael G. Myers
Chief Operating Officer

Michael G. Myers was named COO of the Worcester Railers HC on May 11, 2020, after serving as team president since May 2016. Under his leadership, the Railers were recognized as one of the premier teams in the ECHL which included winning the 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22, & 2023-24 ECHL Community Service Awards. Myers was also named a finalist for the ECHL Executive of the Year in 2018 and 2019. Under his role as COO, he is responsible for all aspects of hockey operations, ticket sales, game day operations, and overseeing the Railers HC Foundation. Before working with the Railers he spent nine seasons with the AHL's Worcester Sharks as Senior Director of Business and Community Development. Myers made a significant impact in Central Massachusetts over that time overseeing an award-winning community relations department while also becoming a fixture in Worcester County's business landscape. Prior to his work with the Sharks, Myers owned and operated Myers Mask Design in Worcester where he built a reputation as one of the country's top mask designers for 11 years, having designed and painted masks for NHL greats such as former Conn Smythe winners Cam Ward and Bill Ranford, and NHL All-Stars Olaf Kolzig, Jonathan Quick and Dwayne Roloson. Myers painted a mask for Josh Harding of the Minnesota Wild that was voted "Mask of the Decade" by Sports Illustrated in 2010. Mike continues to actively serve on the boards of several non-profits throughout the area including Devereux of Rutland and Discover Central Mass. A varsity hockey goalie and lacrosse player at Assumption College from 1989-93 he graduated with a bachelor's degree with a double major in Psychology/Spanish and a minor in Art. Myers attended ECHL training camps with the Hampton Roads Admirals in 1993 and the South Carolina Stingrays in 1994. The Assumption graduate returned to his alma mater, serving as the Greyhounds' hockey assistant coach from 1999-2005. Myers resides in Worcester with his wife Ann and three sons: Matthew, Damon and John.

SECTION 5

Linesman Ken Radolinski was the 2025-26 recipient of the Ryan Birmingham Memorial Award, as determined in a vote of the ECHL on-ice officiating staff. Radolinski began his officiating career with USA Hockey during the 1998-99 season, and joined the ECHL prior to the 2012-13 season.

Major Rule Changes

1988-89
ECHL adopts use of NHL rulebook to govern on-ice play.

1990-91
The goal lines, blue lines, defensive zone face-off circle and markings all moved one foot out from the end boards.

1991-92
Crease changed to semi-circular configuration. Time clock to record tenths of a second in last minute of each period and overtime. Major and game misconduct penalty for checking from behind into boards.

1992-93
No substitutions allowed in the event of coincidental minor penalties called when both teams are at full strength. Minor penalty for attempting to draw a penalty ("diving").

1993-94
High sticking redefined to allow goals scored with a high stick below the height of the crossbar of the goal frame.

1995-96
Overtime period eliminated from game. If a game is tied at the end of regulation, it will be decided by a shootout.

1996-97
Maximum stick length increased to 63 inches. High sticking redefined to include any use of the stick above shoulder-height. All players must be clear of the attacking zone prior to the puck being shot into that zone. The opportunity to "tag-up" and return into the zone has been removed. A player who instigates a fight in the final five minutes of regulation time will receive a minor, a major, a misconduct and an automatic one-game suspension.

1998-99
Goal crease altered to extend one foot beyond each goal post (eight feet across in total). Sides of crease squared off, extending 4'6". Only the top of the crease remains rounded.

2001-02
Teams to play with four skaters and a goaltender in regular-season 5-minute overtime. If a goal is scored in regular-season overtime, the winner is awarded two points and the loser one point. If no goal is scored in overtime then a shootout will occur.

2002-03
"Hurry-up" face-off and line-change rules implemented. "Tag-up" off-side rule reinstituted.

2003-04
All players are required to wear a visor. Maximum length of goaltender pads set at 38 inches.

2005-06
Center red line eliminated for two-line passes. Goaltender not permitted to play the puck outside a designated trapezoid-shaped area behind the net. A team that ices the puck will not be permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the ensuing faceoff. The size of goaltender equipment has been reduced by approximately 11 percent. If a defending player from his defending zone shoots the puck directly out of the playing surface (over the glass) a penalty will be assessed for delaying the game. This rule was modified in 2006-07.

2006-07
If a defending player, from his defending zone, shoots the puck directly out of the playing surface, his team will not be permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the ensuing face-off. The penalty Gross Misconduct is eliminated from rulebook. All penalties that would have warranted gross misconducts are now called as game misconducts.

2008-09
A player who receives his third aggressor game misconduct will result in an automatic two game suspension. This suspension will increase by two games for each subsequent aggressor game misconduct.

2010-11
A lateral or blind side hit to an opponent where the head is targeted and/or the principle point of contact is not permitted. An automatic game misconduct penalty shall be assessed whenever a major penalty is assessed under this rule. The Referee, at his discretion, may assess a match penalty if, in his judgment, the player attempted to or deliberately injured his opponent with an illegal check to the head. If deemed appropriate, supplementary discipline can be applied by the League Office at its discretion.

2011-12
The ECHL adopts the 'Attainable Pass' icing standard in conjunction with no-touch icing. Under this icing standard, the Linesman shall have discretion to wave off apparent icing infractions on attempted passes if those passes are deemed receivable (attainable). In order for the Linesman to wash out the icing for this reason, the receiving player's stick must be on the attacking side of the center red line.

The ECHL also will follow the NHL standard for Boarding (Rule 41) and Head Shots (Rule 48).

2012-13
Anytime a player places his hand over the puck while it is on the ice in order to conceal it from or prevent an opponent from playing the puck, a minor penalty shall be assessed for "closing his hand on the puck." When this is done in his team's goal crease area, a penalty shot shall be assessed (67.4) or a goal awarded (67.5).
A minor penalty shall be imposed on a player who, while play is in progress, picks up the puck off the ice with his hand.

A two-referee system will be in use for all games in the Conference Finals and the Kelly Cup Finals.

2013-14
A two-minute minor penalty will be assessed to any player who removes his helmet prior to the start of a fight.

2014-15
The ECHL adopts hybrid icing. The hybrid-icing system allows the linesman to blow the play dead and call an automatic icing if he determines that the puck will cross the goal line and the defending player is not behind in the race to the end-zone faceoff dots in his defensive zone. The faceoff would go to the far end of the ice. If the attacking player is leading the race, the linesman is supposed to allow the play to continue.

Teams will start overtime of all regular-season games in the opposite end they started the game.

2015-16
Overtime will consist of five minutes of "sudden death" in a 3-on-3 format. If neither team scores during the overtime period, the game will proceed to a shootout. The number of shooters per team in the shootout has been reduced to three. After each team has taken three shots, if the score remains tied, the shootout will proceed to a "sudden death" format.

The "spin-o-rama" move has been eliminated from the shootout. Should a player score a goal in the shootout while making such a move, the goal will not be allowed.

The distance of the hash marks on the end-zone faceoff circles in increased to 5 feet, 7 inches.

Two referees will be used for all games in the Kelly Cup Playoffs.

2016-17
A team is not permitted to call a time-out following an icing violation.

2018-19
Video replay for goal review is tested in Idaho, Kalamazoo, Toledo and Worcester.

2019-20
Video replay review is expanded to include all 26 of the ECHL's cities.
Overtime in the regular season is extended from five minutes to seven minutes.

2019-20
Video replay review is expanded to include all 26 of the ECHL's cities.

2022-23
The two-referee system will be utilized in 25 percent of regular-season games.

Game lineup increased from 16 skaters and two goaltenders to 17 skaters and two goaltenders.

2024-25
The two-referee system will be utilized in 50 percent of regular-season games.

Game lineup increased from 17 skaters and two goaltenders to 18 skaters and two goaltenders.

2026-27
The two-referee system will be utilized in 75 percent of regular-season games.

* Please refer to the ECHL Rulebook for clarity on all situations.

Ryan Birmingham Award

The award honors an On-Ice Official for his contributions and dedication to the league officiating staff and is determined in voting of ECHL On-Ice Officials. It is named in honor of ECHL linesman Ryan Birmingham, who tragically lost his life in an automobile accident in May 2007.

Birmingham began his officiating career when he was 12 years old in the Southgate Minor Hockey Association and worked his way into the USA Hockey Junior Officiating Development Program in 2003. Birmingham was hired as a full-time linesman by the ECHL in 2006 and worked 83 games in the regular season and four games in the Kelly Cup Playoffs, including his final game, Florida at Charlotte on April 17, 2007.

AWARDS

Marcus Crawford of the Kansas City Mavericks had a season for the ages in 2026-27, receiving the ECHL Defenseman of the Year and Most Valuable Player awards while leading the league in scoring with 86 points (14g-72a) in 70 games. He became the first defenseman to lead the ECHL in scoring in league history, while also leading the ECHL with 72 assists, 33 power-play assists and 39 power-play points. He was tied for first among blueliners with 14 goals, second with a +49 rating, third with six power-play goals and fourth with 186 shots on goal.

ECHL Hall Of Fame

In conjunction with the celebration of its 20th Anniversary in 2007-08, the ECHL announced the formation of the ECHL Hall of Fame.

Class of 2026

The third-longest tenured professional hockey league, behind only the National Hockey League and the American Hockey League, the Premier 'AA' Hockey League has grown from five teams in four states in 1988-89 into a coast-to-coast league with 31 teams playing in 24 states and two Canadian provinces in 2026-27.

Class of 2025

The inaugural class of inductees were league founder Henry Brabham, first league commissioner Patrick J. Kelly, five-time ECHL champion Nick Vitucci and seven-time All-Star defenseman Chris Valicevic.

The Class of 2026 was Jeff Campbell, Jason Christie, Riley Gill and Mark Turner.

Hall of Fame members will be selected in four categories: Player, Developmental Player, Builder, and Referee/Linesman. Players must have concluded their career as an active player for a minimum of three playing seasons, though not continuous or full seasons. Developmental Players must have begun their career in the ECHL and went on to a distinguished career in the NHL, playing a minimum of 260 regular season games in the NHL, AHL and ECHL. Builders may be active or inactive whereas Referee/Linesman must have concluded their active officiating career for a minimum of three playing seasons.

Class of 2024

Class of 2023

No more than five candidates may be elected to the ECHL Hall of Fame each year with no more than three Players, one Developmental Player, two Builders and one Referee/Linesman. The Builder and the Referee/Linesman categories are dependent upon the number of candidates in the Player category.

The nomination and/or selection of candidates is determined by the Hall of Fame Selection Committee and its Co-Chairmen, Patrick J. Kelly and Joe Ernst.

Only members of the Selection Committee, the Board of Governors, teams or persons affiliated with the ECHL may submit official nominations which must be made in writing to the league office. Fans are encouraged to contact their team to propose names for nomination.

Class of 2022

Class of 2026

Jeff Campbell scored 254 points (90g-164a) in 210 career ECHL games with Gwinnett from 2004-08. During the 2005-06 season, he ranked fifth in the league with 53 assists and 83 points, helping the Gladiators to reach the Kelly Cup Finals, while earning a spot on the All-ECHL First Team and earning League Most Valuable Player honors. In 2007-08, he finished second in assists (65) and points (91), once again earning All-ECHL First Team honors and receiving the ECHL Sportsmanship Award. He then went on to play the final 10 seasons of his career in Europe, nine of those coming in Switzerland, where he is currently the head coach for HC Fribourg-Gottéron U21.

Jason Christie is the ECHL's all-time leader with 667 career coaching wins and 1,282 games coached in 18 seasons with Peoria, Utah, Ontario, Tulsa and Jacksonville. He led his team to the Kelly Cup Playoffs on 10 occasions, reaching the Conference Finals in 2001, 2008 and 2015. During his playing career, Christie had 262 points (88g-174a) in 250 career ECHL games with Columbus (Chill), Charlotte and Peoria. In his final season as a player in 1999-2000, he earned co-Most Valuable Player honors in the Kelly Cup Playoffs after posting 13 points (3g-10a) in 17 games as the Rivermen captured the Kelly Cup title.

Riley Gill ranks third all-time in ECHL history with 21 shutouts while ranking eighth with 147 career wins and 13th among goaltenders with 245 career appearances over nine seasons with Victoria, Kalamazoo, Reading and Allen. He saved some of his best work for the postseason, where he is tied for first all-time among goaltenders with 90 appearances and ranks second with 53 wins and eight shutouts. He backstopped Reading to the 2013 Kelly Cup title - earning Playoff Most Valuable Player honors - and Allen to back-to-back championships in 2015 and 2016.

Mark Turner averaged over a point-per-game during his ECHL career, totaling 546 points (210g-336a) in 528 games over parts of eight seasons with Columbus (Chill), New Orleans, Mobile, Greensboro (Generals) and Toledo (Storm). He stands 22nd in ECHL history in points, 23rd in assists, 24th in goals and 40th in games played. Turner scored 20 more goals in six of his eight ECHL seasons, including 45 during the 1999-2000 season with Mobile, to rank third in the league.

Class of 2025

Alex Burrows began his professional career in the ECHL with the Greenville Grrrowl in 2002-03, and went on to post 111 points (47g-64a) in 134 games over two-plus seasons in the League. He was recalled to Manitoba of the American Hockey League early in the 2004-05 season, and the next season, made his National Hockey League debut with Vancouver, on his way to a 13-year NHL career with the Canucks and Ottawa Senators. He totaled 409 points (205g-204a) in 913 career NHL games. Following his retirement as a player, he served as an assistant coach for Laval of the AHL and Montreal of the NHL.

Brian McKenna is the longest-serving Commissioner in ECHL history, holding the role for 16 seasons from the 2002-03 season through 2017-18. During his tenure, the ECHL became the only "AA" league in hockey, through absorbing members of the former West Coast Hockey League in 2003-04 and the Central Hockey League in 2014-15. In his first season as Commissioner, the ECHL changed its focus to become the primary developmental league for the NHL and AHL. Since that time, over 450 players have gone on to play in the NHL after playing in the ECHL. Prior to being named Commissioner, McKenna was Executive Vice President and General Manger of the Trenton Titans from their founding and was named ECHL Executive of the Year following the Titans' inaugural season in 1999-2000, a season that saw the team average over 7,000 fans per game and advance to the Northern Conference Finals.

Class of 2018

Steve Chapman began his involvement with the ECHL in 1992, when he was hired as a sales executive with the Birmingham Bulls. Three years later, he was offered, and accepted, the General Manger position for the Mobile Mysticks, who brought professional hockey to Mobile, Alabama for the first time. In 2001, he played in integral role in relocating the team to Gwinnett County, Georgia, where the Gladiators began play in the 2003-04 season. The team reached the playoffs in each of their first six seasons in Atlanta, and finished in the top six in League attendance five times in their first six seasons. Chapman served as Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for nine seasons from 2005-06 through 2014-15, and is the only person to win the ECHL Executive of the Year award in back-to-back seasons, doing so in 2005-06 and 2006-07. He departed the Gladiators following the 2014-15 season and is currently the Group VP, Brand, Community & Partnership Development for the National Hockey League's St. Louis Blues.

He participated in a pair of ECHL All-Star Games – in 1995 and 2003 – and enjoyed his best years late in his career, earning All-ECHL First Team honors with Roanoke in 2001-02 and earning a spot on the All-ECHL Second Team in 2002-03. Kowalsky also enjoyed considerable postseason success, scoring 32 goals, which is tied for seventh in ECHL playoff history, and adding 30 assists in 68 postseason games. He ended his playing career by captaining Trenton to the 2005 Kelly Cup title, then returned to the Titans in 2006-07 as the team's head coach, going 138-122-28 over four seasons and winning the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year in 2009. He was named head coach for Albany of the AHL in 2010-11, and in 2015-16, joined Claude Noel as the only two individuals to win Coach of the Year honors in both the ECHL and AHL. Prior to the 2018-19 season, Kowalsky was named an assistant coach with the National Hockey League's New Jersey Devils.

Brad Phillips ranks as one of the best on-ice officials to ever work in the ECHL. The linesman worked 15 years in the League, and is one of just three officials – along with 2011 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Joe Ernst and former linesman Norm Eberle – to work at least 1,000 ECHL games. He was selected to work the 2001 ECHL All-Star Game in Arkansas, and he served as a linesman during nine Kelly Cup Finals, the most of any linesman in ECHL history. Following the 2012-13 season, he received the Ryan Birmingham Memorial Award in a vote of his fellow on-ice officials. The award honors an official for his contributions and dedication to the league officiating staff and is named in honor of ECHL linesman Ryan Birmingham who tragically lost his life in an automobile accident in May 2007. He becomes only the second on-ice official to be inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame.

Class of 2016

He made his pro debut in the ECHL with Tallahassee and Wheeling in 1994-95 and went on to play 12 seasons in the League. Dumont captured the ECHL scoring title with Pensacola in 2001-02, recording 102 points (32g-70a) in 72 games on his way to earning a spot on the All-ECHL First Team. He also represented the Ice Pilots in the 2002 ECHL All-Star Game, where he picked up a pair of assists and won the Fastest Skater competition. Dumont also enjoyed postseason success, as he is tied for 19th all-time with 38 postseason assists and tied for 23rd with 74 postseason games played.

Scott Sabatino worked in the ECHL League Office for 12 years from 1995 through 2006, serving as the League's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for the final six seasons of his tenure. During his time with the ECHL, Sabatino oversaw all areas of business operations for the League while working closely with team ownership and management on risk management programs, initiating the annual review and reporting project, overseeing league-wide scheduling and other League programs. Sabatino joined the Pac-10 Conference in November 2006 as Associate Commissioner for Business and Finance and in 2010, was hired as Director of Finance for the San Francisco 49ers, where today he is the Vice President of Finance.

Carl Scheer enjoyed over 20 years of experience as an ECHL team executive. He first joined the League in 1993-94, when the Charlotte Checkers joined the ECHL as an expansion team. It was the first time professional hockey had called Charlotte home in over 15 years, and the team was a nearly instant success drawing over 8,100 fans per game in its inaugural season. Charlotte finished in the top four in ECHL attendance in each of its first four seasons and went on to capture the Riley Cup championship in 1996. Scheer, who served as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for several seasons in the 1990s, developed the BI-LO Center in downtown Greenville and brought the Greenville Grrrowl into the ECHL for the 1998-99 season. The Grrrowl averaged over 9,200 fans per game in their first season, and still hold three of the nine largest single-game crowds in ECHL history.

Class of 2014

James Edwards served as President for the Johnstown Chiefs from the 1995-96 season through 2002-03. He was the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for four seasons from 1999-2000 through 2002-03. Edwards was instrumental in helping to keep the last remaining original ECHL team in its same city as the League continued to expand into larger markets and served as the Chairman of the Board as the ECHL approved expansion to include seven markets in the western United States for the 2003-04 season, making the League a coast-to-coast league.

Wes Goldie is the ECHL's all-time leader in career goals with 370, breaking the previous mark of 368 held by 2009 Hall of Fame inductee Rod Taylor, and he ranks fourth in League history with 697 games played over 11 seasons with Pee Dee, Victoria and Alaska. He shares with Taylor the ECHL record for most 30-or-more goal seasons with eight, and he shares the league mark for most consecutive 30-plus goal seasons with six from 2006-07 through 2011-12. Goldie also had success in the Kelly Cup Playoffs, as he ranks fifth all-time in postseason games played with 84, third with 36 postseason goals and fifth with 78 points. He enjoyed perhaps his best season in 2010-11 with Alaska, earning ECHL Most Valuable Player honors with 83 points (46g-37a) in 72 games and adding 14 points (3g-11a) in 13 postseason contests as the Aces captured their second Kelly Cup title in team history.

Al MacIsaac played two seasons in the ECHL with the Hampton Roads Admirals in 1991-92 and 1992-93, scoring 73 points (22g-51a) in 95 career games. He was part of the Admirals' 1992 Riley Cup championship team, scoring 10 points (1g-9a) in 14 postseason games and represented the club in the first-ever ECHL All-Star Game in 1993. MacIsaac also won an American Hockey League Calder Cup title with the Cape Breton Oilers in 1993. Following his playing career, MacIsaac became the Admirals' assistant general manager/assistant coach, was promoted to general manager/assistant coach in 1996 and he earned a Kelly Cup championship ring with the club in 1998. MacIsaac is currently in his 19th season in the front office of the National Hockey League's Chicago Blackhawks where he was part of the team's 2010 and 2013 Stanley Cup titles, and is in his ninth season as the club's Vice President of Hockey Operations.

John Spoltore, who passed away in 2010, made his mark on the ECHL Record Book while playing with the Louisiana IceGators from 1995-96 through 2000-01. He scored an amazing 532 points (142g-390a) in just 275 career ECHL games, an average of 1.93 points-per-game, and his 390 assists are tied for the third most in League history. His 1.15 assists-per-game average ranks tops in ECHL history and he fell just one assist shy of tying the League's single-season assist record when he recorded 92 during the 1999-2000 season. He was named to the All-ECHL Second Team in 1997-98 before earning a spot on the All-ECHL First Team in each of the next two seasons. Spoltore represented the IceGators in the 1999 and 2000 ECHL All-Star Games, and he earned a Calder Cup title with the Providence Bruins of the American Hockey League in 1999 after tallying 12 points (6g-6a) in 11 postseason contests.

Class of 2013

David Craievich began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1991-92 with the Cincinnati Cyclones, and went on to play 516 games over nine seasons in the league with the Cyclones, Birmingham Bulls and Mobile Mysticks. He ranks third all-time among ECHL defensemen with 123 goals and 467 points while ranking fourth among blue-liners with 344 assists. Twice during his career he scored at least 20 goals, and in 1995-96, he led the expansion Mysticks in scoring with 74 points (23g-51a) in 65 games. Craievich played in three ECHL All-Star Games, and was selected as a starter for the 1994 and 1996 games. He was named to the All-ECHL Second Team in 1993-94, 1995-96 and 1997-98.

Marc Magliarditi became the second goaltender to join the ECHL Hall of Fame. He is tied for the League's all-time lead with 25 career shutouts, ranks second behind 2008 Hall of Fame inductee Nick Vitucci with 217 career wins and is third with 21,154 minutes played. He played in 366 games, which is fourth all-time among goaltenders, with the Columbus Chill, Florida Everblades, Louisiana IceGators, Richmond Renegades and Las Vegas Wranglers. Six times in his ECHL career he won at least 20 games, and his two seasons of 30 or more wins are tied for second all-time.

Steve Poapst is the second inductee in the Developmental Player category. Poapst began his professional career in the ECHL with the Hampton Roads Admirals in 1991-92, scoring 28 points (8g-20a) in 55 regular-season games and adding five points (1g-4a) in 14 postseason games, helping the Admirals to claim their second consecutive Riley Cup championship. He returned to Hampton Roads the following season, tallying 45 points (10g-35a) in 63 games. Poapst made his NHL debut with the Washington Capitals in 1995-96, scoring one goal in three regular-season games, while also seeing action in six games during the Stanley Cup Playoffs. He appeared in 307 career National Hockey League games with Washington, Chicago, Pittsburgh and St. Louis, tallying 36 points (8g-28a). Poapst also registered 205 points (45g-160a) in 498 career games in the American Hockey League with Baltimore, Portland and Norfolk. Following his retirement, he went on to coach three seasons in the United States Hockey League and five seasons in the AHL.

Darren Schwartz arrived in the ECHL during the league's second season in 1989-90 and played eight seasons in the league with the Johnstown Chiefs, Winston-Salem Thunderbirds, Wheeling Thunderbirds, Tallahassee Tiger Sharks and Wheeling Nailers. Schwartz made his biggest mark in the ECHL during Wheeling's inaugural season in 1992-93. He scored a team record 62 goals in 62 games that season, becoming one of just eight players in ECHL history to score at least 60 goals in a single season. He set the ECHL record with a 16-game goal streak, scoring 25 goals from Jan. 14-Feb. 21, 1993; tallied a hat trick in a span of 30 seconds on Dec. 20, 1992; and was named the Most Valuable Player of the league's inaugural All-Star Game with four points (2g-2a). Schwartz ranks seventh in ECHL history with 313 goals, is 13th with 571 points, is tied for seventh with 32 postseason goals and is 14th with 70 postseason points. He was named to the All-ECHL First Team in 1992-93, 1993-94 and 1994-95 and upon his retirement following the 1998-99 season, held the ECHL career record with 490 games played.

Class of 2012

Bill Coffey was one of the driving forces behind the creation of the ECHL. Along with inaugural ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Henry Brabham, Coffey came up with the idea to form the league during the summer of 1988. He was the original owner of the Knoxville Cherokees, and also assisted in establishing the Erie Panthers, giving the league five teams for its inaugural season in 1988-89. He also established one of the ECHL's first expansion teams, the Greensboro Monarchs, who entered the league in 1989-90.

Sheldon Gorski began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1990-91 with the Louisville IceHawks, and went on to play eight seasons in the league with the IceHawks, Louisville RiverFrogs, Miami Matadors and Pensacola Ice Pilots. He ranks sixth in ECHL history with 316 goals and 608 points, and is tied for fifth with a 0.67 goals-per game average. Three times during his career, Gorski scored 50 or more goals, including a career-high 56 in 1991-92. He was an All-ECHL Second Team selection in 1990-91 and was named to the All-ECHL First Team in 1991-92. Gorski played in the 1993 and 1998 ECHL All-Star Games, tallying five assists, which is tied for third all-time. He is one of just four players in league history to tally 100 or more points in consecutive seasons (1990-91 and 1991-92).

John Marks ranks as one of the most successful coaches in ECHL history. He joined the league as head coach of the expansion Charlotte Checkers in 1993-94 and won at least 35 games nine times. He posted an all-time record of 491-422-95 in 15 seasons as an ECHL head coach with Charlotte, Greenville, Pensacola and Augusta, and ranks second all-time in games coached (1,008), wins (491) and seasons (15). His teams also excelled during the postseason as he led Charlotte to the 1996 Riley Cup championship and Greenville to the 2002 Kelly Cup championship, joining 2009 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee John Brophy as the only coaches to win both a Riley Cup and Kelly Cup title. His 10 postseason appearances are second behind only Brophy, while his 45 wins are tied for fifth.

Dave Seitz played in 489 games over eight seasons with the South Carolina Stingrays. He ranks sixth in ECHL history with 384 assists, is 11th with 587 points and is 20th with 217 goals. Seitz was part of South Carolina's 1997 and 2001 Kelly Cup championship teams, and was named Most Valuable Player of the 2001 Kelly Cup Playoffs after leading the postseason with 15 assists and 28 points and tying for the lead with 13 goals. His 73 postseason points are tied for 10th all-time, while his 44 assists are tied for 11th and his 29 goals are tied for 14th. Seitz played in the 1998 and 1999 ECHL All-Star Games, and is tied for third in All-Star history with five career assists.

Bob Woods ranks ninth in ECHL history with 599 games played, and is the all-time leader among defensemen with 159 goals, over 10 seasons with Johnstown, Hampton Roads, Mobile, Tallahassee and Mississippi. He is ninhth all-time with 364 assists and his 523 points are 24th all-time. Both marks are second among defensemen, trailing only 2008 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Chris Valicevic. Woods holds the ECHL record for shots on goal in a game with 17 on March 14, 1998 and was an All-ECHL Second Team selection three times (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2000-01). Woods, who led ECHL defensemen in points in 1996-97 and in goals in 1998-99, was part of Mississippi's 1999 Kelly Cup championship team. Following his retirement as a player, he was head coach of the Sea Wolves from 2001-2005.

Class of 2011

Richard Adams joined the ECHL as Vice President of Business Operations prior to the 1994-95 season. The following season, he was named President/CEO, a position he held through the 2001-02 season. Under his leadership, the League executed its first Collective Bargaining Agreement with the Professional Hockey Players' Association, launched ECHL Properties, unveiled a new logo and launched the official League website, ECHL.com. The League grew from 21 members in 1995-96 to 29 in 2001-02, and moved into 17 markets that had never before had professional hockey. Adams was one of the driving forces behind the addition of six former West Coast Hockey League markets during the summer of 2002.

Phil Berger began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1989-90 with Greensboro and played nine seasons in the league with Greensboro, Charlotte, Raleigh and Hampton Roads. He ranks eighth in ECHL history with 599 points, 11th in goals (251) and 14th in assists (348). His 0.69 goals-per-game, 0.95 assists-per-game and 1.64 points-per-game averages are all fourth-best in league history. Berger led the ECHL in scoring with 130 points (60g-70a) in 1991-92 and with 139 points (56g-83a) in 1993-94. He was named to the All-ECHL Second Team and the ECHL Most Valuable Player in 1991-92 and was named to the All-ECHL First Team in 1993-94. Berger is the ECHL's all-time leader in postseason scoring with 117 points, is tied for first with 50 postseason goals and is second with 67 postseason assists. He was a member of two Riley Cup championship teams – Greensboro in 1990 and Charlotte in 1996. Berger played in the first two ECHL All-Star Games in 1993 and 1994 and scored three points (2g-1a).

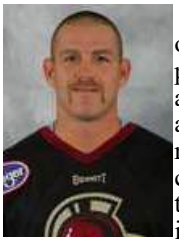

Luke Curtin made his ECHL debut in 1998-99, and went on to play in 501 games over nine seasons with Baton Rouge, Atlantic City and Fresno. He is fifth in ECHL history with 384 assists and 12th with 577 points. Curtin is second all-time with five ECHL All-Star Game appearances (1999, 2000, 2005, 2006 and 2007) and he was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2006 ECHL All-Star Game with two goals. He was a member of Atlantic City's 2003 Kelly Cup championship team and finished tied for second during the Kelly Cup Playoffs with 20 points (2g-18a). Curtin is fifth in ECHL postseason history with 58 assists and is tied for seventh with 75 postseason points. He was an All-ECHL First Team selection in 2003-04 and 2005-06 and was named to the ECHL All-Decade Team for 2000-2010 in a vote of fans on ECHL.com.

Joe Ernst, who was the first inductee in the Referee/Linesman category, is celebrating his 29th season in the ECHL in 2019-20. Ernst spent 16 seasons as a referee with the ECHL beginning in 1991-92, and after retiring was named Assistant Director of Officiating. He was named Vice President of Hockey Operations prior to the 2011-12 season and was promoted to Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations in 2018. Ernst officiated 1,061 regular-season games and over 200 postseason games, and is the only referee in ECHL history to have worked over 1,000 games. He was a member of the NHL Trainee Program for seven seasons and worked preseason games in the National Hockey League, as well as games in the American Hockey League and International Hockey League. Ernst was selected to work the 1999 ECHL All-Star Game and worked nine ECHL Finals series (1993-1995 Riley Cup Finals and 2002-2007 Kelly Cup Finals).

Class of 2010

Cam Brown retired as the ECHL all-time leader, and currently ranks second, with 789 regular-season games and is the all-time leader with 2,425 penalty minutes. He played 13 seasons in the ECHL beginning in 1991-92 and ranks 24th with 206 goals, 29th with 499 points and 33rd with 293 assists. He retired in 2002-03 to serve as head coach of Baton Rouge, but returned to the ice in 2003-04 and spent three seasons as a player/assistant coach for Gwinnett. He also played two seasons with Columbus (Ohio), three seasons with Erie and six seasons with Baton Rouge while also playing in the American Hockey League and the International Hockey League. He played one game in the National Hockey League as a rookie with Vancouver in 1990-91 and had seven penalty minutes. Brown was honored after the 2005-06 season by the Gladiators who created a replica of his locker with gear and sweater in a glass case on the concourse of The Arena at the Gwinnett Center.

E.A. "Bud" Gingher, who passed away in 2002, co-founded the Dayton Bombers in 1991 and served as President and Governor until he sold the team in 1998. He was Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors from 1992-95 and is a member of both the Dayton Hockey Hall of Fame and the Peoria Rivermen Hockey Hall of Fame. The club that advances to the Kelly Cup Finals as the winner of the Eastern Conference is presented with the E.A. "Bud" Gingher Memorial Trophy. Dayton was the inaugural recipient of the trophy after its renaming and the Bombers captured it again in 2006-07.

The first inductee in the Developmental Player category, Olaf Kolzig was 11-9-1 and ranked third in the ECHL with a 3.41 goals-against average in 21 regular-season games and 1-2-0 with a 4.66 goals against average in three postseason games with Hampton Roads in 1990-91. In 1991-92 with Hampton Roads, Kolzig led the ECHL in the regular season with a .914 save percentage while going 11-3-0 with a 2.90 goals-against average in 14 regular-season games. He was selected as an NHL All-Star in 1998 and 2000 and became the first former ECHL player to win the Vezina Trophy in 1999-2000. Kolzig appeared in 719 career NHL games and ranks 21st all-time with 303 wins while posting 35 shutouts and having a goals-against average of 2.71 and a save percentage of .906. He played his first 15 NHL seasons with Washington where he was 301-293-86 with 35 shutouts and a 2.70 goals-against average in 711 regular season games and 20-24 with six shutouts and a goals-against average of 2.14 in 45 playoff games. He led the Capitals to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1997-98 registering four shutouts and a goals-against average of 1.95. He had 41 wins, five shutouts and a goals-against average of 2.24 in 1999-2000 earning a selection to the NHL All-Star Game and First Team All-NHL while winning the Vezina Trophy.

Darryl Noren began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1990-91 with Greensboro and played 10 seasons including his final six with the Charlotte Checkers. He ranks third in ECHL history with 685 points, tied for third with 390 assists, eighth with 295 goals and 24th with 549 games. He finished his career in 1999-2000 as the ECHL all-time leader in games, assists and points. Noren scored 30-or-more goals five times including a career-high 46 in 1994-95. He tied the ECHL record with three consecutive three-or-more goal games in December of 1994 and had seven games with three-or-more goals in 1994-95. He helped the Checkers capture the Riley Cup Championship in 1996 and had 41 points (18g-23a) in 48 postseason games. He was selected to the 15th Anniversary All-ECHL Team in voting by coaches, players, front office personnel and media from the first 15 years of the ECHL and was inducted into the inaugural class of the Charlotte Hockey Hall of Fame in 2008. He was chosen to play in the ECHL All-Star Game in 1995, 1997 and 1998.

Class of 2009

John Brophy won a record three ECHL titles with Hampton Roads in 1991, 1992 and 1998. He coached at all levels of professional hockey, including the National Hockey League, and his more than 1,000 coaching victories rank him second all-time to Scotty Bowman. He retired as the ECHL leader for regular season games (882), regular season wins (480) and years coached (13). He holds the league records for postseason wins (55), postseason appearances (11) and championships (3) while ranking second in postseason games coached (94). The ECHL Coach of the Year award is named in his honor.

Blake Cullen was the founder and owner of the Hampton Roads Admirals for the team's first seven seasons in the ECHL. The Admirals advanced to the playoffs every year and won back-to-back Riley Cup championships in their second and third seasons. Hampton Roads drew more than 1.8 million fans during his tenure and led the league in attendance in 1989-90 and 1992-93 while ranking among the attendance leaders every year.

Tom Nemeth won the ECHL Defenseman of the Year award three times and was selected First Team All-ECHL three years. He holds the ECHL records for assists and points by a defenseman in a season with 82 assists and 98 points in 1993-94. He is third all-time among defensemen with 345 assists and 463 points and he led all defensemen in 2000-01 with 20 goals, 48 assists and 68 points. He played in the ECHL All-Star Game in 1993, 1994, 1998 and 2001, tying him for the third-most appearances.

Rod Taylor is second all-time in ECHL history with 368 goals and is tied for first all-time for most 30-goal seasons (8) and most consecutive 30-goal seasons (6). He played all but 19 of his professional games in the ECHL. He retired as the all-time leader in goals (368), points (689) and games (678) and remains second in scoring and sixth in games. He helped Hampton Roads win the Riley Cup as a rookie in 1992, scoring a league record-tying 16 goals in 14 games, and the Kelly Cup in 1998. He is third in career postseason goals (39) and tied for 15th in postseason games (78).

Class of 2008

Henry Brabham founded the ECHL, formerly known as the East Coast Hockey League, in 1988-89 with five teams in four states. Brabham owned three of the original five teams, including the legendary Johnstown Chiefs who were the last original ECHL team to play in their original city. The dedication of the Virginia businessman was crucial to the league surviving to span from coast-to-coast while advancing more than 650 players and countless coaches, on-ice officials and front office personnel to the National Hockey League.

Patrick J. Kelly was the inaugural Commissioner of the ECHL, which from 1988-96 experienced the greatest expansion in minor league hockey history, growing from five teams to 21. He was instrumental in establishing affiliations with teams in the NHL, creating the opportunity for players, on-ice officials and front office personnel to develop and move up the hockey ladder. He became Commissioner Emeritus in 1996, and since 1997 has presented the postseason champion with the Patrick J. Kelly Cup.

During his nine-year career, Chris Valicevic established himself as not only one of the best defensemen in league history, but one of the greatest players overall while playing for the Greensboro Monarchs and the Louisiana IceGators. He was selected to a record seven All-Star Games and was named First Team All-ECHL five times while being named the league Most Valuable Player in 1998-99. He ranks second all-time with 102 postseason games and is the career regular season and postseason leader among defensemen in assists and points.

Nick Vitucci won a record five ECHL championships, four as a player and one as an assistant coach. Named the postseason Most Valuable Player twice, he played 14 seasons and is the career regular-season leader among goaltenders in games, minutes and win. He played in two All-Star Games and was named First Team All-ECHL in 1991-92 and 1997-98.

Coach of the Year
John Brophy Award

An annual award "to the ECHL coach adjudged to have contributed the most to his team's success" as voted by the coaches of each of the ECHL teams.

The Coach of the Year award was named in honor of legendary ECHL coach John Brophy prior to 2003-04. Brophy coached 13 seasons, more than any other coach in league history with Hampton Roads from 1989-2000 and Wheeling from 2001-03, compiling a career record of 480-323-79 in the regular season and 55-39 in the postseason. Hampton Roads reached the postseason in each of his 11 seasons, winning back-to-back titles in 1991 and 1992 and an ECHL record third title in 1998.

Kansas City Mavericks' head coach Tad O'Had received the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year for the 2025-26 season. O'Had led Kansas City to its third consecutive Mountain Division title and its second Brabham Cup as ECHL regular-season champions in the last three years. The Mavericks' 55 wins and 115 points are both tied as the third-most in a single-season in ECHL history while their 28 road wins are second all-time. Kansas City was third in the league with 3.54 goals per game while ranking second with 2.21 goals-against per game.

POSTSEASON

Every team takes the ice each October with one goal in mind, to be the team that gets the honor of hoisting the Kelly Cup as the ECHL champion. The trophy is presented each year by the man for whom it is named - ECHL Commissioner Emeritus Patrick J. Kelly. The Florida Everblades captured the 2026 Kelly Cup title, defeating the Kansas City Mavericks 4 games to 2 in the Kelly Cup Finals, capturing their fifth title in team history, and fourth in the last five seasons.

CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHIES

PATRICK J. KELLY CUP

Beginning with the 1996-97 season, the Patrick J. Kelly Cup is awarded annually to the playoff champion of the ECHL.

History: Named in recognition of Patrick J. Kelly, one of the founding fathers of the ECHL. Kelly served as Commissioner of the ECHL for the first eight seasons before being named Commissioner Emeritus in 1996, a title which he continues to hold. Kelly celebrates his 73rd season in hockey in 2025-26, having begun his career with the St. Catharines Tee Pees of the Ontario Junior Hockey League in 1952. He played professionally for the Springfield Indians of the American Hockey League, the Troy Bruins of the International Hockey League, and the Greensboro Generals of the Eastern Hockey League. Kelly coached in the Eastern Hockey League from 1965-73 and was head coach and general manager of Charlotte in the Southern Hockey League from 1973-76. He coached the Colorado Rockies in the NHL in 1977-78 and is the only coach to lead the Rockies to the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Following coaching stops in the American Hockey League, he went to Peoria in the International Hockey League where he led the Rivermen to the Turner Cup in his first season in 1984-85. The ECHL is proud to recognize his distinguished career by naming its most coveted trophy in his honor.

JACK RILEY CUP

History: Named in recognition of Jack Riley, the Jack Riley Cup was awarded to the playoff champion of the ECHL from the league's inaugural season in 1988-89 until 1995-96 when it was retired and replaced with the Patrick J. Kelly Cup. Beginning in 1938, Jack Riley did it all in professional hockey as a player, coach, general manager and scout. One of the most respected names in hockey, Riley was President of the American Hockey League from 1964-67 and was then a scout for the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League until being named Commissioner of the Southern Hockey League in 1975.

HENRY BRABHAM CUP

Beginning with the inaugural season in 1988-89, the Henry Brabham Cup is awarded annually to the regular-season point champion of the ECHL.

History: Named in recognition of Henry Brabham, a founding member of the ECHL, who was the first owner of the Erie Panthers. A former mayor and businessman who was a major force in professional hockey in Virginia for more than 15 years, Brabham worked tirelessly to establish the fledgling league. The ECHL is proud to recognize his hard work and dedication by naming its regular-season champion award in his honor.

BRUCE TAYLOR TROPHY

The club that advances to the Kelly Cup Finals as the winner of the Western Conference Championship is presented with the Bruce Taylor Trophy.

The trophy is named in recognition of Bruce Taylor, who was the founding father of the West Coast Hockey League. In the early 1990s, Taylor purchased teams in Fresno, Reno and Bakersfield and in 1995 joined them with teams in Anchorage, Fairbanks and San Diego to form the West Coast Hockey League. The Taylor Cup was presented to the playoff champion in the WCHL from the league's inaugural season in 1995-96 until the league ceased operations following the 2002-03 season. Taylor's ownership in hockey began in 1983 with the purchase of the Burnaby Bluehawks of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League and continued with the purchase of the Richmond Sockeyes in the BCJHL and the New Westminster Royals in the BCJHL.

History: Beginning in 1997-98, the trophy was awarded to the playoff champion of the Southern Conference in the ECHL. With the restructuring of the league divisional alignment beginning in 2003-04, the trophy was designated for the playoff champion of the Western Conference and in 2004-05, the winner of the National Conference.

JUNE M. KELLY PLAYOFFS MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

An annual award presented "to the most valuable player for his team in the playoffs." Winner selected by the media and ECHL staff at the conclusion of the final game in the Kelly Cup Finals.

The trophy is named in honor of June M. Kelly, the wife of ECHL Commissioner Emeritus Patrick J. Kelly, whom the Kelly Cup is named after. Mrs. Kelly was an integral part of the ECHL behind the scenes during her husband's tenure as Commissioner from the League's inaugural season in 1988-89 through his retirement following the 1995-96 season.

During the early years of the ECHL, the Kelly tandem were the only employees of the League Office. As the administration and financial overseer of the League, June served as the backbone of the office, allowing her husband, Pat, to travel and build the League during its infancy.
