HISTORY & TIMELINE

January 15, 2024 - Iowa defeats Cincinnati in overtime, 5-4, off the strength of a Max Cajkovic overtime-winning goal. Iowa overcame a pair of multi-goal deficits to win. It is one of the most-remarkable wins in Heartlanders history because of the circumstances surrounding it; the team played at Tulsa Jan. 12-13, but was unable to make it back to Coralville the night of the 13th because of heavy snow and a flash freeze that affected the Midwest. While leaving the rink in Tulsa postgame on Jan. 13, the Heartlanders team bus suffered a break down as the team waited for help from first responders in sub-zero temperatures. The next day, Iowa left from Tulsa but encountered a pileup on the highway that caused the bus to sit on the Missouri-Oklahoma border near Joplin, Missouri from 1:30 PM until nearly 7:00 PM. The team did not arrive back to Coralville until after 6 AM to play a 4 PM game. In total, the Heartlanders traveled 18 hours on Jan. 14-15 and the team won in come-from-behind fashion.

January 27, 2024 - Iowa scores a team-record five power-play goals (5-for-9) in a 7-3 win in Indy, a physical affair that saw the teams combine for 89 penalty minutes. Iowa scored four power-play goals in a four-minute span. Three of those four came on a major penalty to Indy's Andrew Bellant for charging.

February 24, 2024 - The Heartlanders win in overtime at Cincinnati, 3-2, to win a season series against the Cyclones for the first time in team history. Iowa won three straight games at Heritage Bank Center to end the year, their first three victories ever at Cincinnati.

April 13, 2024 - The Heartlanders sell out Xtream Arena for the first time in team history, an announced attendance of 4878, in a 7-4 win against Kansas City to close the regular season. The Heartlanders had more than 2000 people RSVP for a pregame tailgate outside Xtream Arena, and thousands attended. Seven Heartlanders score, the teams combine for 58 penalty minutes and the Heartlanders ended the 2023-24 on a major high note.

November 12, 2024 - Behind three power-play goals and two fighting majors from enforcer Nico Blachman, the Heartlanders beat up Kansas City, 5-3, on a school day game. The win moves Iowa to 5-3-1-0, by far the best start in team history in Iowa's first four seasons.

December 4-7, 2024 - A major turning point in year 4 happens over a four-day span in early December. The Heartlanders sweep a road week at Toledo and Indy. After winning a school day game at Toledo thanks to a Yuki Miura overtime goal Dec. 4, Iowa visits Indy for the first two games ever at the Fishers Event Center. Iowa overcomes a 3-1 deficit in the first game ever in Fishers to win, 4-3, then overcomes another deficit the next day and wins in overtime, 2-1. Andrew McLean, an early-season acquisition from Norfolk, scores late in OT. The wins push Iowa to a 12-5-3-0 record.

January 4, 2025 - The Heartlanders defeat the Wichita Thunder at INTRUST Bank Arena in the middle of a major snowstorm, 2-1, in a ten-round shootout (at the time the longest in team history). Nico Blachman and Brandon Yeamans score in the skills competition's final two rounds to end the game. The win snaps a four-game losing streak and sends the Heartlanders on a six-game winning streak and eight-game points streak.

February 15, 2025 - The Heartlanders win a thriller, 5-4, in the shootout against first-place Toledo. Timmy Kent scores the winning goal in the shootout. The Heartlanders end February with a 30-16-4-4 record, their most wins in a single season, with still 1.5 months to go in the season.

March 30, 2025 - The Heartlanders overcome a multi-goal deficit, force overtime late in the third, and earn a standings points to clinch the team's first-ever berth in the Kelly Cup Playoffs. The team finds out their fate about 5 minutes after Iowa's 3-2 overtime loss because a Bloomington regulation loss allowed Iowa to clinch that day. Fans stick around for the happiest postgame skate in Heartlanders history, albeit in defeat.

April 12, 2025 - The Heartlanders sell out Xtream Arena for the second time ever in the final home game of year 4. Cincinnati wins the game, 5-2. With a win the next day at Kalamazoo, Iowa concludes the 2024-25 regular season with 36 wins and 83 points, good for 3rd in the Central Division. Both figures are by far Iowa's best numbers ever in a single season.

April 18, 2025 - The Heartlanders match up with Fort Wayne in the Central Division Semifinals and Iowa wins their first-ever playoff game, 5-3, at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum. Rookie star Matt Sop scores the first playoff goal in team history, Kyle McClellan blocks 24 shots and Adam Goodsir puts the game away with a third-period short-handed goal.

HISTORY & TIMELINE

April 22, 2025 - Game 4 of the Central Division Semifinals might be regarded as the best game in Heartlanders history through the first four seasons in team history. Iowa enters the game trailing the best-of-seven series, 2-1. Defenseman Zeteny Hadobas (2nd pro goal, 1st of playoffs) scores 7:07 into double overtime on Iowa's 38 shot to end a 3-hour, 45-minute marathon.
