- GVL: 4-0-0-1 Last 5; O'Hara-PPG (3gm Point Streak); Atkinson-Ast (5gm Ast Streak)

Josh Atkinson extended his assist streak to five games and Ryan O'Hara potted a power play goal, but the Steelheads came out with the second point, taking the first-ever meeting between the clubs with a 3-2 shootout win on Wednesday. While the loss ends the Swamp Rabbits win streak at four, it extends their current point streak to five games, their longest of the season.

NOTES AND NUMBERS

- HEADED OUT TO FIVE POINTS: The Swamp Rabbits loss in the breakaways has ended their win streak at four, which ties the longest such run of victories this season. However, the shootout loss extends their point streak to five games, which now sets a new mark in the 2025-26 campaign. Three times prior did the Swamp Rabbits earn points in the season in four straight games, twice with four wins in a row (October 31 vs Orlando - November 8 vs Orlando; January 23rd vs Florida - January 31st @ Utah) and once with post-regulation play mixed in (2-0-2-0 from December 12th @ South Carolina - 12/20 vs Atlanta).

- BROKEN OVER BREAKAWAYS: The Swamp Rabbits loss on Wednesday came after 67 minutes of hockey was played, ultimately coming in three rounds of the shootout. It's just the second time the Swamp Rabbits have played in a shootout, winning the only one prior all the way back on the second game of the regular season, the team's first win of the year at Savannah on October 18th. Even more impressive, it's the team's first shootout loss in over a calendar year, last falling 3-2 to the Reading Royals on the team's annual "NASCAR Night" on January 25, 2025.

- THANKS FOR THE ASSIST(S): Swamp Rabbits captain JOSH ATKINSON goes back-to-back in the game notes, continuing one of his best career stretches. With an assist on TIM LOVELL's tying strike in the second period, Atkinson has extended his career-high assist streak to five straight games, going all the way back to the team's win against Florida on January 23rd. Overall in his career, he's two games away from tying the longest streak of games with a point, which was accomplished in seven consecutive outings from January 14, 2017 to January 29, 2017 as a member of the Atlanta Gladiators. In this current stretch, he's matched his point total in that previous seven-game run of eight points (two goals, six assists; the previous run in 2017 was three goals and five helpers).

- THE SHERIFF HITS 200: Should he take to the ice tonight in the rematch against the Steelheads, forward DANTE SHERIFF will do for a 200th time in his ECHL and professional career. In a career that started all the way back in 2022, Sheriff has racked up 135 points in his previous 199 games, earning 49 goals and 86 assists with the Tulsa Oilers (2022-2024), the Cincinnati Cyclones (2024-25), and Greenville Swamp Rabbits (present). Coming into this milestone game, Sheriff has points in four of his last five contests, and two points in three of them, totaling two goals, five assists, and seven points.

- WE'RE GOING STREAKING!: Two players carry a streak into tonight's mid-series tilt against Idaho:
  - JOSH ATKINSON: has assists + points in five straight games (2-6=8; 1/23 vs FLA - 2/4 @ ID)
  - RYAN O'HARA: has points in three straight games (2-2=4; 1/30 @ UT - 2/4 @ ID)

CHAD COSTELLO - HEAD COACH/GENERAL MANAGER

Johnston, Iowa - Northeastern (NCAA)/Cedar Rapids, Des Moines (USHL)/Wichita Falls (NAHL)

Costello comes to the Upstate to begin his third season as a Head Coach, and his fourth behind a bench in professional hockey. Previously, he was appointed Associate Coach of the Rapid City Rush on December 12th, leading the team to an 18-10-3-1 record while averaging 3.63 goals per game in that span. His efforts helped the Rush finish the season just shy of 20.0% on the power play and propelled the team to eventual ECHL franchise records with an 11-game winning streak and overall 13-game point streak from February 1st to March 1st. That torrid run included sweeps of the Utah Grizzlies and Maine Mariners, and two of the Idaho Steelheads.

Prior to joining the Rush, Costello was the Head Coach and General Manager of the Allen Americans for a pair of seasons (2022-24), reaching the Kelly Cup Playoffs in both campaigns while compiling a 70-67-5-2 record in 144 contests. In his first season, his Americans squad finished second in the Mountain Division, top-five in both power play and penalty kill, and top-10 in the ECHL offensively. Additionally, his team featured three of the league's top-10 scorers, including eventual ECHL MVP and Rookie of the Year Hank Crone, who led the league with 105 points, trailed next by teammate Jack Combs' 95-point total.

A native of Johnston, Iowa, Costello, 38, turned to coaching following a 14-year playing career, the majority of which was played in the ECHL where he cemented himself as one of the best players in the 38-year history of the "Premiere 'AA' Hockey League". The 5'9", 185-pound forward notched a scorching 561 points (172g-389ast) in 375 games as a member of the Allen Americans (2014-17, 2021-22), Ontario Reign (2013-14), Colorado Eagles (2011-13), and Texas Wildcatters (2008), the latter of which he turned professional with following college. While he garnered ECHL First-Team All-Star and MVP honors with Colorado in 2012, he is best known for his work with Allen, where he was the captain for three of his four seasons. Costello won three consecutive ECHL scoring titles, each with 100-plus-point seasons from 2015-17, back-to-back Kelly Cup Championships in 2015 and 2016, June M. Kelly Playoff MVP honors for the latter, back-to-back ECHL MVP recognitions in 2016 and 2017, and four ECHL All-Star Team Selections (1st Team in 2015, 2016, 2017; 2nd Team in 2022). His #13 was retired by the Allen Americans on March 23, 2024.

In total, Costello played 749 professional games across the ECHL, AHL, IHL, and CHL in North America, the DEL in Germany, and Norway, earning 919 points (293g-626ast). Before turning pro, he played two college seasons with Northeastern University in the NCAA, two USHL seasons with the Cedar Rapids Roughriders and Des Moines Buccaneers, and one NAHL season with the Wichita Falls Wildcats.

JASON PAYNE - ASSOCIATE COACH

Toronto, Ontario - Barrie/London (OHL)

Payne comes to the Upstate after spending the last six seasons with the Cincinnati Cyclones, serving as Head Coach over the previous four campaigns. While with the Toronto Maple Leafs ECHL affiliate, he compiled a 143-114-31 record in 288 games for a career a 0.550 win percentage. In the 2022-23 season, Payne lead the Cyclones to a 47-16-6-3 record and 103 points, the second most points in the entire ECHL, earning the privilege to coach the 2023 Western Conference All-Stars and culminating in the 2023 Central Division Championship.

Previous to his appointment as the Cyclones bench boss, he was an Assistant Coach for the team under Matt Thomas for a pair of seasons. In his six seasons in Cincinnati, he qualified for the postseason three times, twice as head coach, making it as far as the Central Division Finals in 2023.

Payne, 49, immediately jumped into the coaching ranks following his playing career, taking various roles in the OHL and OJHL including scout, skating and skills coach, and General Manager. As a player, the 6'1", 190-pound forward played 14 seasons professionally, amassing 32 goals, 44 assists, 76 points, and 1,825 PIM in 522 games across the AHL, ECHL, IHL, UHL, and LNAH, winning the 2005 LNAH title with Quebec RadioX. Before playing professionally, the Toronto, Ontario, native played two seasons in the OHL wuth the Barrie Colts and London Knights.
