This season, the Tahoe Knight Monsters will start the season without three of their top four leading scorers from last season (Simon Pinard, Bear Hughes, Logan Nelson). The Knight Monsters have added many key players with ECHL and AHL experience to fill in the gap

After this three-game opening series against the Idaho Steelheads, the Knight Monsters embark on an 11-game road trip, with stops in Tulsa, Idaho, Rapid City, and Greensboro before returning home on November 20 against the Savannah Ghost Pirates

Head Coach Alex Loh returns behind the bench for the Knight Monsters, a year removed from a second-round Kelly Cup Playoff appearance in the team’s inaugural season. Joining him are new assistant coach Nick Niedert, video coach Chris Collins, and new equipment manager Jaxson Hibbard

Anthony Collins enters the 2025-26 ECHL Season as the league leader in career penalty minutes amongst active players with 1108 throughout his career in the league (2nd- Justin Taylor, Adirondack; 3rd- Mike McKee, Tulsa)

The Knight Monsters are back in action tomorrow at home against the Idaho Steelheads for the second game of a three-game opening weekend series.
