Preseason Recap

The Florida Everblades took another extra time decision over the Orlando Solar Bears 3-2 in a shootout. The win gives Florida a perfect 2-0 record in the preseason this year.

The two teams each registered six shots in a scoreless first period highlighted my Nico Blachman's fight against Jake Hamilton.

Orlando opened the scoring early in the second period as Spencer Kersten got open net front and buried a pass from behind the net. Florida struggled to get offence going the other way until Kyle Penney buried a beautiful wrister blocker side to tie the game off the rush.

The Everblades found themselves in penalty trouble, but managed to swing it in to their favor. Jett Jones sprung Carson Gicewicz on a breakaway, who went five hole to give Florida the 2-1 lead.

The lead almost went the distance for Florida, but Alex Tonge scored right off a faceoff with just under five minutes left to tie the game. For a second consecutive game, overtime was required - this time, however, seven minutes of extra hockey was not enough, leading to a shootout.

Both Blades, Tarun Fizer and Logan Will, scored while Cam Johnson made two stops to give Florida the 3-2 shootout victory. The Everblades outshot the Solar Bears 32-23 in the win.

Season Preview

The Florida Everblades begin their quest for their fifth Kelly Cup in franchise history when they face the Orlando Solar Bears this Friday at the Kia Center.

This season marks the 28th season of Everblades hockey in Southwest Florida, which has seen unprecedented success in minor league hockey. Florida leads the ECHL in all-time postseason series wins, playoff wins, and Kelly Cups with four, including being the only franchise in league history to win three consecutive championships from 2022-2024.

Last season saw the Everblades' dynastic run halted in the Eastern Conference Finals – Florida swept the Jacksonville Icemen in the opening round, then downed the Orlando Solar Bears in five games, but could not follow it up in the Conference Finals against the Trois-Rivières Lions, ousting Florida in six games. The Lions are one of only two active ECHL teams that have a record above .500 over the Blades in Florida's history, with the Tulsa Oilers being the other. The Everblades will face six foes outside their division. Most notably, Florida visits the Wichita Thunder in late October for the first ever meeting between these teams.

Other notable matchups for the Everblades this season include Teddy Bear Toss against Orlando on December 12, Anthony Peters' return to Hertz Arena as head coach of the Reading Royals on December 27, and Fan Appreciation Night on April 11 against the South Carolina Stingrays to finish off the season.
