QUICK HITS

TONIGHT'S PREVIEW

The South Carolina Stingrays take on the Orlando Solar Bears for the eighth of ten meetings this season. The Solar Bears lead the season series 4-3 but the Stingrays won the last meeting, which was also Orlando's most recent matchup.

LAST TIME OUT

The Stingrays earned a 5-4 victory in Atlanta last night. Jack Adams scored a hat trick (including the overtime winner), Josh Wilkins scored twice, and Garin Bjorklund stopped 28 of 32 shots in the victory.

SCOUTING THE SOLAR BEARS

The Solar Bears have won ten of their last thirteen games. They have 44 points and are third in the South Division and fourth in the eastern conference.

ALL-TIME SERIES

The Stingrays are 66-37-12 against the Solar Bears all time.

SUDDEN DEATH STINGRAYS

The Stingrays lead the ECHL with seven overtime wins. They have a six-game overtime win streak dating back to November 19 against Orlando.

WHO'S HOT: JOSH WILKINS

Josh Wilkins is the Stingrays leader in goals, points, and power play goals. He is on a four-game point streak (four goals, three assists) and he scored twice in last night's game. He scored three points in the last matchup between the Stingrays and Solar Bears.

WHO'S HOT: JARID LUKOSEVICIUS

Jarid Lukosevicius leads the Stingrays with 1.15 points per game and he has also leads the team in game winning goals this season with three. He has seven points in five games since returning to the team from Belleville on January 11.
