A FRESH START

After winning a third Brabham Cup and winning the South Division last year, the South Carolina Stingrays begin their 33rd season by hosting the Norfolk Admirals on Opening Night at the North Charleston Coliseum. The Stingrays set franchise records in wins (52) and points (109) last season. This season, South Carolina welcomes back 12 players who have played for the Stingrays, with one veteran on the roster and eight players with rookie status.

NEW MAN AT THE HELM

The Stingrays will be under the direction of first year Head Coach, Dave Warsofsky. Warsofsky brings a wealth of knowledge to the Stingrays dressing room after playing in the NHL and AHL and in the Olympic Games for the United States. Warsofsky appeared in 55 games in the NHL and 476 games in the AHL. Dave is the younger brother of former Stingrays Head Coach, Ryan Warsofsky, who is now the Head Coach of the NHL's San Jose Sharks.

WILKS READY TO ROLL

Stingrays forward Josh Wilkins returns for his fourth season in the Lowcountry. The Raleigh, NC native led the team in points last year with 58 (22g, 36a) and had a +25 rating. Wilkins has played in 158 games with SC and has 157 points (63g, 94a), 17th most in franchise history.

BACK FOR MOORE

Defenseman Connor Moore enters his sixth season with the Stingrays following a career year. Last season, the Cumming, GA native had 40 points (10g, 30a) in 65 games. His 10 goals and 40 points were career high's and the most by a Stingrays defenseman last season. Moore has played in 278 games with SC, which is tied for 12th most in franchise history.

SIMON SCORES

Newcomer Simon Pinard has been a force in the ECHL. The 24-year-old had 33 goals last season for Tahoe, third most in the league and 64 points after tallying 48 points (24g, 24a) with Savannah the year prior. Pinard now brings that skill to a high-powered Stingrays offense for '25.
