EISELE EARNS GOALIE OF THE WEEK

South Carolina goaltender Seth Eisele was named the Warrior Hockey ECHL Goaltender of the Week on Monday for the week of Feb. 23-March 1. The Lake Elmo, Minnesota native went 3-0-0 with a 29 save shut-out of Savannah on Feb. 27. He posted a 0.97 goals-against average and a .969 save percentage. Eisele is 17-6-1 with a 2.22 goals-against average and a .924 save percentage.

HATTY'S FOR EVERYONE Charlie Combs and Stan Cooley lit up the scoresheet last Sunday as both forwards recorded hat tricks in the 7-1 win over Savannah. The hat trick for Combs was the first of his ECHL career while the hat trick for Cooley was the first of his professional career. Sunday marked the first time since February 26, 2025 that a team had two players record hat tricks in the same contest.

CLASH WITH THE GLADS Tonight marks Atlanta's final visit to the North Charleston Coliseum this season with only one more meeting between the clubs in Duluth on March 15. The Stingrays lead the season series over the Gladiators, 4-3, as the two split their last meetings in North Charleston on Feb. 20 and 21. Atlanta is coming off a 5-1 loss Wednesday night against the Orlando Solar Bears at the Kia Center.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES South Carolina has played in 16 one-goal games this season and are 14-1-1 in those contests, one of the best marks in the ECHL this season. The 14 wins are tied for the fifth most wins in one-goal games in the ECHL.

South Carolina also holds a 11-6-0-0 record in two-goal games.

STACKING AGAINST THE DIVISION The Stingrays continue a very heavy division schedule this season as they prepare for their 23rd straight game against the South Division on Friday night. The Stingrays have not played a non-divisional game since January 4th. Against the South Division this season, the Stingrays are 31-18-1-0 while holding a 4-0 record against the North

SOUTH CAROLINA STINGRAYS STAFF

DAVE WARSOFSKY

Head Coach | Record: 35-18-1

David Warsofsky is entering his first season as Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations for the South Carolina Stingrays. He is the 13th head coach in franchise history. Warsofsky joins the Stingrays following a 14-year professional playing career and most recently served as a special coaching advisor for the Stingrays during the 2024-25 season. The Marshfield, Massachusetts native played 55 NHL games with the Boston Bruins, Pittsburgh Penguins, New Jersey Devils, and Colorado Avalanche. He appeared in 476 American Hockey League games with Providence, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, San Antonio, Chicago, and Colorado. He captained Team USA at the 2008 U18 World Championship, was an assistant captain for the gold medal-winning 2010 U20 World Junior team. He represented Team USA at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, serving as an assistant captain. Warsofsky helped Boston University win the 2009 NCAA National Championship and was drafted in the 4th round (95th overall) of the 2008 Draft.

SCOTT DAVIDSON

Assistant Coach

Scott Davidson is entering his third season behind the Stingrays bench as an Assistant Coach. In 2024-25, Davidson oversaw the Stingrays forwards and penalty kill. Under Davidson's leadership, South Carolina's penalty kill finished first in the ECHL at 86.3%. Davidson played 33 games as a forward for the Rays during the 2019-20 season. Davidson started his coaching career at the Maine Nordiques Academy in 2021 before coaching at the Elite Hockey Academy in Guilford, Connecticut, this past year. Davidson played four seasons of Division I hockey at Quinnipiac University, where he was an assistant captain in his junior and senior years. Following the conclusion of his collegiate career, Davidson joined the Charlotte Checkers and was a member of their 2019 Calder Cup championship team.

MIKE HAMILTON

Assistant Coach

Mike Hamilton is entering his second season behind the bench with the Stingrays as an assistant coach. Hamilton's playing career lasted six seasons and he skated in 40 games for the Stingrays. He has lived in Charleston for the majority of his post-playing career and is now beginning his professional coaching career. A native of Victoria, British Columbia, Hamilton was selected by the Atlanta Thrashers in the sixth round of the 2003 NHL Draft. Following a four-year college hockey career at the University of Maine from 2003-2007, Hamilton skated in 305 career professional games split between two AHL teams, four ECHL teams, and professional teams in Italy and Scotland. In 2007-08, Hamilton won a Calder Cup Championship with the AHL's Chicago Wolves.

CHUCK LIEBENROOD

Head Equipment Manager

Chuck Liebenrood is entering the second season of his second stint as the Head Equipment Manager for the Stingrays. Liebenrood grew up in Summerville, SC, and attended Stingrays games as a child. He was in attendance at the North Charleston Coliseum the night the Stingrays won their second Kelly Cup title in 2001. Liebenrood played for the Summerville High School hockey team and graduated in 2010. He began working for the Stingrays as an equipment assistant in the 2011-2012 season and was promoted to Head Equipment Manager ahead of the 2014-15 season at age 22. That season, Liebenrood helped the Stingrays reach the 2015 Kelly Cup Finals, where they fell to the Allen Americans in seven games.

Training and Performance Staff

JULIA PHILLIPS
Head Athletic Trainer

Julia Phillips is entering her second season with the Stingrays. She joins the Rays with experience in both professional and major-junior hockey. She served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the ECHL's Wichita Thunder for the 2023-24 season, and for two seasons before that, she was the Head Athletic Trainer for the BCHL's Wenatchee Wild. Phillips studied at the University of Central Florida, where she received a Bachelor's Degree in Health Services/Allied Health/Health Sciences and a Master's Degree in athletic training.
