SPLIT WITH THE FISH

South Carolina took three points against Toledo, but left a fourth on the table Saturday night as the Stingrays fell in a shootout, 4-3. Both sides traded two goals in the first 9 minutes of play before Ben Hawerchuk put South Carolina ahead 3-2 in the second. Toledo tied the game in the third before the Walleye won in three rounds in this shootout, taking a 4-3 win.

CLASH WITH THE GLADS

South Carolina and Atlanta meet for the final time in the regular season on Sunday afternoon in Duluth. Sunday marks the first time South Carolina plays in Duluth since November 26, 2025. South Carolina is 5-3-0 against the Gladiators this season, but are 1-2-0 on the road. The last four meetings came in North Charleston.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Stingrays finished a very strong home-stand, going 4-0-1, and now are home for three of the next four. At home this season, the Stingrays are 22-8-1 with a +21 goal differential. The Stingrays have the second most wins at home in the ECHL this season, only trailing league leading Kansas City with 25 wins.

KUPKA IS KRUISSING

Forward Kyler Kupka had a pair of goals on Friday evening in the 5-1 win over Toledo which extended his point streak to four games. Across the past five contests, Kupka has seven points (3g, 4a) and has only been held scoreless twice since February 21st. In 39 games this season, the Camrose, Alberta native has 36 points (17g, 19a), including six power play goals.

FINALLY SOME FRESH FACES

The Stingrays play six of their next seven games against the Western Conference. Friday night marked the first contest against a non-divisional opponent since January 4th. South Carolina is 33-18-1 against the South Division while holding a 4-0 record against the North Division, and 1-0-1 against the Central Division. The Stingrays will face Allen and Idaho over the next two weeks.

SOUTH CAROLINA STINGRAYS STAFF

DAVE WARSOFSKY

Head Coach | Record: 38-18-2

David Warsofsky is entering his first season as Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations for the South Carolina Stingrays. He is the 13th head coach in franchise history. Warsofsky joins the Stingrays following a 14-year professional playing career and most recently served as a special coaching advisor for the Stingrays during the 2024-25 season. The Marshfield, Massachusetts native played 55 NHL games with the Boston Bruins, Pittsburgh Penguins, New Jersey Devils, and Colorado Avalanche. He appeared in 476 American Hockey League games with Providence, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, San Antonio, Chicago, and Colorado. He captained Team USA at the 2008 U18 World Championship, was an assistant captain for the gold medal-winning 2010 U20 World Junior team. He represented Team USA at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, serving as an assistant captain. Warsofsky helped Boston University win the 2009 NCAA National Championship and was drafted in the 4th round (95th overall) of the 2008 Draft.

SCOTT DAVIDSON

Assistant Coach

Scott Davidson is entering his third season behind the Stingrays bench as an Assistant Coach. In 2024-25, Davidson oversaw the Stingrays forwards and penalty kill. Under Davidson's leadership, South Carolina's penalty kill finished first in the ECHL at 86.3%. Davidson played 33 games as a forward for the Rays during the 2019-20 season. Davidson started his coaching career at the Maine Nordiques Academy in 2021 before coaching at the Elite Hockey Academy in Guilford, Connecticut, this past year. Davidson played four seasons of Division I hockey at Quinnipiac University, where he was an assistant captain in his junior and senior years. Following the conclusion of his collegiate career, Davidson joined the Charlotte Checkers and was a member of their 2019 Calder Cup championship team.

MIKE HAMILTON

Assistant Coach

Mike Hamilton is entering his second season behind the bench with the Stingrays as an assistant coach. Hamilton's playing career lasted six seasons and he skated in 40 games for the Stingrays. He has lived in Charleston for the majority of his post-playing career and is now beginning his professional coaching career. A native of Victoria, British Columbia, Hamilton was selected by the Atlanta Thrashers in the sixth round of the 2003 NHL Draft. Following a four-year college hockey career at the University of Maine from 2003-2007, Hamilton skated in 305 career professional games split between two AHL teams, four ECHL teams, and professional teams in Italy and Scotland. In 2007-08, Hamilton won a Calder Cup Championship with the AHL's Chicago Wolves.

CHUCK LIEBENROOD

Head Equipment Manager

Chuck Liebenrood is entering the second season of his second stint as the Head Equipment Manager for the Stingrays. Liebenrood grew up in Summerville, SC, and attended Stingrays games as a child. He was in attendance at the North Charleston Coliseum the night the Stingrays won their second Kelly Cup title in 2001. Liebenrood played for the Summerville High School hockey team and graduated in 2010. He began working for the Stingrays as an equipment assistant in the 2011-2012 season and was promoted to Head Equipment Manager ahead of the 2014-15 season at age 22. That season, Liebenrood helped the Stingrays reach the 2015 Kelly Cup Finals, where they fell to the Allen Americans in seven games.

Training and Performance Staff

JULIA PHILLIPS Head Athletic Trainer

Julia Phillips is entering her second season with the Stingrays. She joins the Rays with experience in both professional and major-junior hockey. She served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the ECHL's Wichita Thunder for the 2023-24 season, and for two seasons before that, she was the Head Athletic Trainer for the BCHL's Wenatchee Wild. Phillips studied at the University of Central Florida, where she received a Bachelor's Degree in Health Services/Allied Health/Health Sciences and a Master's Degree in athletic training.
