SIMON'S SOARING

Stingrays forward Simon Pinard continues his tear in the 2025-26 season. Pinard has goals in five out of the last six games and 11 points (6g, 5a) in his last 10. This season, Pinard has set new career highs in assists (40) and points (68). Overall, the Drummondville, Quebec native leads the Eastern Conference in points and is fifth in the league with his 68.

HELLO AGAIN, KELLY The Stingrays have clinched a playoff berth for the 2026 Kelly Cup Playoffs, presented by PlumbPro+. South Carolina has now qualified for the Kelly Cup Playoffs for the 30th time in the franchise's 33 seasons, the most in ECHL history. The Stingrays currently sit in second place in the South Division, two points ahead of third place Atlanta. South Carolina cannot finish lower than third in the division.

RINALDI'S ROLLING

Forward Anthony Rinaldi has enjoyed his first few weeks as a Stingray after he was acquired on March 17 from the Greensboro Gargoyles. In six games with South Carolina, Rinaldi has nine points (5g, 4a) and has only been held without a point once since coming to the Stingrays. In total this season, Rinaldi has 35 points (17g, 18a) in 62 games.

DIVISIONALS DOWN THE STRETCH

The Stingrays finish the regular season with four games against the South Division. South Carolina meets Florida for a two-game set this weekend in Estero, then are in Savannah next Friday before finishing the regular season against Orlando. The Stingrays are 35-19-1-1 against the South this season.

BATTLE WITH THE 'BLADES

The Stingrays and Everblades meet for the final two times in the regular season on Friday and Saturday in Estero. The two sides have met for two other sets this season, with Florida sweeping two games in November in Estero before the Stingrays earned a split in North Charleston in late January. The Stingrays look to potentially lock up the number two seed with a pair of victories and Atlanta loss while Florida has clinched the one seed in the South.
