A FAST START The South Carolina Stingrays began their 33rd season 2-0-0-0 after a pair of victories over the Norfolk Admirals on Saturday, 2-1, and the Greenville Swamp Rabbits, 4-3, on Sunday in Greenville. South Carolina has started the season 2-0-0-0 for the first time since the 2022-23 season and only the third time since 2019-20.

FIRST LINE FRENZY The Stingrays first line of Josh Wilkins, Kyler Kupka and Simon Pinard dominated on Sunday in Greenville following a quiet opening night. Wilkins and Pinard both finished the night with three points each, with Pinard opening the scoring in the 1st period and assisting on both of Wilkin's goals, including the game-winner with 2:21 left in the 2nd period. Kupka also added an assist on Wilkin's first goal of the evening with the three combining for 7 points.

BACK FOR MOORE Defenseman Connor Moore enters his sixth season with the Stingrays following a career year. Last season, the Cumming, GA native had 40 points (10g, 30a) in 65 games. His 10 goals and 40 points were career high's and the most by a Stingrays defenseman last season. Moore has played in 280 games with SC, which is 11th most in franchise history, just surpassing Avalanche HC, Jared Bednar's, 279.

New Kids On The Block: Multiple Stingrays over the weekend had impressive debuts. Rookie forwards Stanley Cooley, Patrick Guzzo and defenseman John Fusco all recorded their first professional points across the weekend. In addition, netminder Antoine Keller recorded his first win in North American professional hockey.

NEW MAN AT THE HELM The Stingrays will be under the direction of first year Head Coach, Dave Warsofsky. Warsofsky brings a wealth of knowledge to the Stingrays dressing room after playing in the NHL and AHL and in the Olympic Games for the United States. Warsofsky appeared in 55 games in the NHL and 476 games in the AHL.
