BOHLSSEN BOLSTERS THE RAYS

South Carolina rookie forward

Kaden Bohlsen picked the perfect time for his first professional goal. Tied late in the 3rd period in Greenville on Saturday, Bohlsen walked in to the dot and snapped home his first professional goal over the shoulder of Greenville goalie Isaiah Saville to put the Stingrays in front, 2-1, with 2:06 remaining in regulation, leading the Stingrays to the victory.

WILKS AT IT AGAIN

South Carolina forward Josh Wilkins has picked up where he left off last season with the Stingrays. Through four games this season, Wilkins leads the team in goals with 3 and points with five. The Providence product has two multi-point nights this season and has 44 in his ECHL career.

HERE'S GIBBY!

In his second start of the season, netminder

Mitch Gibson stood on his head in Greenville on Saturday night. The Phoenixville, PA native saved 30 of 31 shots, including all seven he saw in the 3rd period, to help the Stingrays to a 2-1 victory. Through two starts this year, Gibson has a 1.00 goals-against average, which is tied for third best in the ECHL.

What's the Fus(co) About: Rookie defenseman John Fusco has four points (1g, 3a) in his first four professional games, which is tied for fourth most points among all defensemen in the ECHL. The Westwood, MA native scored his first professional goal in the 3rd period on Thursday night in Savannah.

A RODDY ROCKET

Stingrays defenseman Romain Rodzinski

opened the scoring for South Carolina on Opening Night in the 3rd period and added his second goal of the year last Thursday in Savannah. Rodzinski's two goals are tied for the most by a defensemen in the ECHL this season.

NEW MAN AT THE HELM

The Stingrays will be under the direction of first year Head Coach, Dave Warsofsky. Warsofsky brings a wealth of knowledge to the Stingrays dressing room after playing in the NHL and AHL and in the Olympics for the USA.
