HERE'S GIBBY Stingrays netminder Mitch Gibson was named the ECHL's Goaltender of the Week for 11/3-11/9. Last night against Atlanta, the PA native followed it up with a 33-save shutout as the Stingrays beat the Gladiators, 1-0. It was the first shutout of the year for the Stingrays and Gibson's fourth in his ECHL career. With the win, South Carolina has now won four-straight games and sits T1 in the South Division.

SUNDAY FUNDAY The Stingrays scored twice in the 1st period and twice at the end of the 2nd period to take a 5-3 victory over the Orlando Solar Bears on Sunday. Jordan Klimek scored twice for the Stingrays in only his second game this season while Ben Hawerchuk totaled three points (1g, 2a) in the win. Seth Eisele got his first win of the season saving 31 shots on 34 attempts.

SIMON SCORES Forward Simon Pinard has gotten off to a quick start in his Stingrays career, logging 11 points in his first 11 games. The Drummondville, QC native has points in 6 of his last 8 games, and has three multi-point games this year. He leads the team in assists (6), points (11), and is tied for the team lead in goals.

LUYPEN LETTING LOOSE Forward Jalen Luypen has become a force for the Stingrays offense over the last three weeks. The Kelowna, BC native has seven points in his last five games and has multi-point games in three of his last four appearances.

BEARS BACK IN TOWN The Stingrays and Solar Bears meet for the fourth time this season on Saturday night in North Charleston. South Carolina is 3-0-0 to start of the 2025-26 campaign against Orlando, taking a pair of 4-2 victories, one at home and on the road, and a 5-3 win at home last Sunday.
