KYLER'S KILLING IT

Forward Kyler Kupka was instrumental in both Stingrays victories this past week. The Camrose, Alberta native scored three times across the two games, including the lone goal in the 1-0 victory on Friday. On Saturday, he followed it up with two goals on the power play, propelling the Stingrays to a 5-3 win over Orlando. Kupka was named the ECHL's Player of the Week on Tuesday. It was the second time he has earned this honor.

LUYPEN LETTING LOOSE

Forward Jalen Luypen has become a force for the Stingrays offense over the past three weeks. The Kelowna, BC native has 10 points (4g, 6a) over his last seven games and has multi-point outings in four of the last six games. Luypen had a season-high three points (1g, 2a) in Saturday's win over Orlando, including a short-handed goal.

MOORES SET FOR TOP 10

Stingrays defenseman Connor Moore is set to play in his 292 game as a Stingray on Friday night, which would put him into the top 10 in games played in franchise history. Moore would pass Brad Dexter ('96-'01) who played in 291 games for the Stingrays.

SUNSHINE STATE SWING

South Carolina is already on its third trip to Florida this season and will be frequent visitors to the Sunshine State. Following Friday night's game, South Carolina will be in Orlando on 11/29, in Jacksonville twice in the first two weeks of December, with two more separate trips to Orlando before the New Year. The Stingrays play in Florida 15 times this season.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

The Stingrays are on the road for their second four-game road trip of the year. South Carolina prepares for its first meetings this season with the Florida Everblades on Wednesday and Friday night before seeing Atlanta for two games starting next Sunday. The Stingrays are 4-4-0-0 on the road this year.
