KYLER'S KILLING IT Forward Kyler Kupka has picked up right where he left off from being named to the ECHL All-Rookie team a season ago. Across 15 games, the Camrose, Alberta native has 14 points (8g, 6a). The eight goals are the most on the Stingrays while his 14 points are tied for the most on South Carolina. The forward has recorded at least a point in 11 of the first 15 games this season and has two-multi point outings this season.

SIMON SCORES Stingrays forward Simon Pinard continues to be a force in the ECHL. After having the game-winning goal on Sunday in Atlanta, Pinard scored his sixth goal, which is second most on the team, and tallied his 14th point, which is tied for the most on the Stingrays this season. His eight assists are also tied for most on South Carolina with forward Jalen Luypen. The Drummondville, QC native has four multi-point games this season, and has 27 multi-point games in his career.

MOORES TO THE TOP 10 Stingrays defenseman Connor Moore played in his 292 game as a Stingray on Friday night, which put him into the top 10 in games played in franchise history. Moore passed Brad Dexter ('96-'01) who played in 291 games for the Stingrays.

SUNDAY SETH Stingrays netminder Seth Eisele won his third straight appearance on Sunday afternoon against the Atlanta Gladiators. The Minnesota native saved 22 shots on 24 attempts on Sunday afternoon in the 3-2 victory for the Stingrays. Across his last three appearances, he has saved 76 shots on 84 attempts.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN The Stingrays are set to finish their second four-game road trip of the season on Wednesday night at Atlanta. South Carolina is 5-5-0-0 on the road this season and return home on Friday night to face Greensboro before going back on the road Saturday for a three-game road trip against Orlando, Jacksonville and Savannah.

SOUTH CAROLINA STINGRAYS STAFF

DAVE WARSOFSKY

Head Coach | Record: 10-5-0

David Warsofsky is entering his first season as Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations for the South Carolina Stingrays. He is the 13th head coach in franchise history. Warsofsky joins the Stingrays following a 14-year professional playing career and most recently served as a special coaching advisor for the Stingrays during the 2024-25 season. The Marshfield, Massachusetts native played 55 NHL games with the Boston Bruins, Pittsburgh Penguins, New Jersey Devils, and Colorado Avalanche. He appeared in 476 American Hockey League games with Providence, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, San Antonio, Chicago, and Colorado. He captained Team USA at the 2008 U18 World Championship, was an assistant captain for the gold medal-winning 2010 U20 World Junior team. He represented Team USA at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, serving as an assistant captain. Warsofsky helped Boston University win the 2009 NCAA National Championship and was drafted in the 4th round (95th overall) of the 2008 Draft.

SCOTT DAVIDSON

Assistant Coach

Scott Davidson is entering his third season behind the Stingrays bench as an Assistant Coach. In 2024-25, Davidson oversaw the Stingrays forwards and penalty kill. Under Davidson's leadership, South Carolina's penalty kill finished first in the ECHL at 86.3%. Davidson played 33 games as a forward for the Rays during the 2019-20 season. Davidson started his coaching career at the Maine Nordiques Academy in 2021 before coaching at the Elite Hockey Academy in Guilford, Connecticut, this past year. Davidson played four seasons of Division I hockey at Quinnipiac University, where he was an assistant captain in his junior and senior years. Following the conclusion of his collegiate career, Davidson joined the Charlotte Checkers and was a member of their 2019 Calder Cup championship team.

MIKE HAMILTON

Assistant Coach

Mike Hamilton is entering his second season behind the bench with the Stingrays as an assistant coach. Hamilton's playing career lasted six seasons and he skated in 40 games for the Stingrays. He has lived in Charleston for the majority of his post-playing career and is now beginning his professional coaching career. A native of Victoria, British Columbia, Hamilton was selected by the Atlanta Thrashers in the sixth round of the 2003 NHL Draft. Following a four-year college hockey career at the University of Maine from 2003-2007, Hamilton skated in 305 career professional games split between two AHL teams, four ECHL teams, and professional teams in Italy and Scotland. In 2007-08, Hamilton won a Calder Cup Championship with the AHL's Chicago Wolves.

CHUCK LIEBENROOD

Head Equipment Manager

Chuck Liebenrood is entering the second season of his second stint as the Head Equipment Manager for the Stingrays. Liebenrood grew up in Summerville, SC, and attended Stingrays games as a child. He was in attendance at the North Charleston Coliseum the night the Stingrays won their second Kelly Cup title in 2001. Liebenrood played for the Summerville High School hockey team and graduated in 2010. He began working for the Stingrays as an equipment assistant in the 2011-2012 season and was promoted to Head Equipment Manager ahead of the 2014-15 season at age 22. That season, Liebenrood helped the Stingrays reach the 2015 Kelly Cup Finals, where they fell to the Allen Americans in seven games.

Training and Performance Staff

JULIA PHILLIPS Head Athletic Trainer

Julia Phillips is entering her second season with the Stingrays. She joins the Rays with experience in both professional and major-junior hockey. She served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the ECHL's Wichita Thunder for the 2023-24 season, and for two seasons before that, she was the Head Athletic Trainer for the BCHL's Wenatchee Wild. Phillips studied at the University of Central Florida, where she received a Bachelor's Degree in Health Services/Allied Health/Health Sciences and a Master's Degree in athletic training.
