COMEBACK KIDS AGAIN

For the fourth time this season, the South Carolina Stingrays had to come from behind to pick up their fifth victory of the season. After Orlando struck first on Tuesday, the Stingrays rallied to take down the Solar Bears, 4-2. Kaden Bohlsen scored twice while Reilly Webb scored his first goal of the season to push South Carolina ahead with 3:48 left in regulation.

WILKS AT IT AGAIN

South Carolina forward Josh Wilkins has picked up where he left off last season with the Stingrays. Through eight games this season, Wilkins is tied for the team lead in goals with 4. The Providence product has three multi-point nights this season and has 45 in his ECHL career.

HERE'S GIBBY! Stingrays goalie Mitch Gibson continues to be stellar in net. On Tuesday morning against Orlando, Gibson saved 44 shots on 46 attempts, which was the most saves this season by a Stingrays goalie. Gibson this season has a 1.52 GAA, which is sixth best in the ECHL. His .950 save percentage also ranks sixth in the league.

ROAD TRIPPIN' The Stingrays finish a heavy road schedule for the first several weeks of the season. Seven of South Carolina's first nine games are on the road, including this four-game road trip. The Stingrays are 3-3-0-0 away from home this season. South Carolina returns home on Sunday to begin a three-game homestand before hitting the road for another four.

SIMON SCORES Forward Simon Pinard has gotten off to a quick start in his Stingrays career, logging eight points in his first eight games. The Drummondville, QC native has points in 4 of his last 5 games, and has two multi-point games this year. He leads the team in points and is tied for most goals on SC.

NEW MAN AT THE HELM The Stingrays will be under the direction of first year Head Coach, Dave Warsofsky. Warsofsky brings a wealth of knowledge to the Stingrays dressing room after playing in the NHL and AHL and in the Olympics for the USA.
