NOTES AND NUMBERS

ONE DOWN, 71 TO GO: The Swamp Rabbits started their season off on the right foot with a 5-1 blasting of the Atlanta Gladiators on Opening Night, presented by the Bon Secours St. Francis Healthy System. Depth scoring paved the way with five different players scoring in the season-opening victory.

STORMIN' GORMAN: Leading off the scoring entries was BRENDAN GORMAN, who's season-opening strike not only gave the Swamp Rabbits a 1-0 lead, but also served as the first goal of his professional career. Gorman is the first rookie since Stuart Rolofs on October 18, 2024, to open a new Swamp Rabbits season with his first professional goal while notching a multi-point game (Rolofs had 1-2=3, Gorman 1-1=2).

SIX SHOOTER: Gorman was the tip of the iceberg for his line, which paced all Swamp Rabbits scoring efforts in the win last night. In addition to his goal and assist, his linemates, NEIL SHEA and HUDSON SCHANDOR, also notched two points last night, with Shea boasting an identical goal and assist that included the game-winner, and Schandor collecting two helpers. That line combination racked up a whopping six points, exactly 40% of the goal scoring output and just less than half of the team's 15 points on the scoresheet.

PARTNERSHIP OF THE "CENTURY": It has been hypothesized that the connection between BLAKE BENNETT and RYAN McALLISTER will change the game for the Swamp Rabbits, and last night proved that true with two milestones. McAllister, playing in his 100th professional game, linked up with Bennett in the second period, with the latter blasting his 100th professional goal to give the Swamp Rabbits a 3-0 lead. McAllister's 100 games come primarily from the AHL, while Bennett's 100 goals are made up of 91 in the ECHL.

FROM ONE RIVALRY TO THE NEXT: Closing out opening weekend, the Swamp Rabbits now jet down I-26 to see the in-state rival South Carolina Stingrays. The Swamp Rabbits look to flip the script in North Charleston Coliseum coming off a 1-4-1-0 showing in last season, with December 6th serving as the only win (5-2).
