Walleye Watch

Circling Back: The Toledo Walleye begin their 2026-27 season with the same opponent that saw the end of their 2026 Kelly Cup Playoffs run, the rival Fort Wayne Komets. This game is special, as it celebrates the 75th anniversary of the Toledo-Fort Wayne rivalry, with the two teams wearing throwback jerseys. The Komets will don their inaugural sweaters, while the Walleye bring back the Mercurys identity for this match-up, the first of two in this throwback home-and-home series. Since the inception of the ECHL, the Walleye hold a 72-41-13 record in the regular season against their division-rival.

The 17th Edition: The Toledo Walleye begin their seventeenth season of play on Saturday night at Fort Wayne, the 71st overall season of professional hockey in Toledo. Following a roster move on Friday, the roster consists of 18 forwards, eight defensemen and a pair of goaltenders. Goaltender Carter Gylander is the lone Red Wings assignment, but the Fish have gotten some new friends from their AHL affiliate, the Grand Rapids Griffins. Forwards Tag Bertuzzi and Kaden Bohlsen, along with defensemen and reigning ECHL MVP Marcus Crawford and goaltender Jonathan Lemieux. Former NHL forward and AHL-great Chris Terry also joins the fold, giving the Walleye a wealth of talent and experience to pair alongside many returning faces like Brandon Hawkins, Tanner Dickinson and Dylan Moulton.

MVPs Unite! The Toledo Walleye roster the recipients of each of the last three ECHL Most Valuable Player Award. Forward Brandon Hawkins became just the second player in league history to win the award back-to-back seasons, doing so in 2023-24 and 2024-25, and finished runner-up last season after leading the ECHL in shots (300) and power-play goals (14) and placing second in points (78), goals (35) and power-play points (32). The reigning ECHL MVP defenseman Marcus Crawford joins the fold in Toledo on assignment from the AHL's Grand Rapids Griffins. The veteran defenseman returns to the pond for the first time since the 2019-20 season. He is coming off of a 2025-26 campaign that saw him claim Defenseman of the Year and a spot on the All-ECHL First Team in addition to his MVP win. He led the ECHL in points (86), assists (72), power-play points (39), power-play assists (33) and placed second in +/- (+49). In addition to his previous rankings, he led all defensemen in goals (14) and game-winning goals (5).

Powered-Up Power-Play: The Fish had far and away the ECHL's best power-play unit last season, as their 29.9% conversion rate had a further gap to second place Fort Wayne (24.7%) than Fort Wayne did to ninth place Utah (20.2%). Brandon Hawkins continued to be a force with a man-advantage, leading the ECHL in power-play goals (14) and finishing second in power-play points (32). With some help from Toledo's AHL affiliate, the Grand Rapids Griffins, defenseman Marcus Crawford, who led the league in power-play assists (33) and power-play points (39), has joined the fold. Kansas City's David Cotton finished second to Hawkins in power-play goals last season with 13, 10 of which contained an assist from Crawford. Quinn Preston (7) and Kaden Bohlsen (6) each also collected a handful power-play scores last season, giving the Walleye some added ammunition on what was their strongpoint a year ago.

Keepin' it Movin': The Toledo Walleye have relied on skillful, fast and smart hockey over the previous seasons. Last year, they were the least penalized team, and had the second-fewest penalties called on their opposition. Their 608 penalty minutes and 670 opponent penalty minutes were far-and-away the lowest full season numbers in franchise history, beating 665 team penalty minutes in 2015-16, and 804 opposing penalty minutes in 2025-26 (2019-20 season had 743 opponent penalty minutes). However, the special teams unit made the most of their special teams opportunities as they ran the ECHL's best power play unit regardless of venue at 29.9% (29.8% at home, 30.1% on road) and also led the league with 15 shorthanded goals, a stunning 11 of which came on the road.

This Day in Toledo Hockey History: Tonight begins the 71st season of professional hockey in the city of Toledo. Beginning with the Mercurys, we have been blessed with teams also known as the Buckeyes, Blades, Hornets, Goaldiggers, Storm and Walleye. Toledo's friendly rival, the Fort Wayne Komets, are celebrating their 75th season in existence. Fittingly, the Komets organization requested that Fort Wayne meet Toledo in its season opener tonight. In case you're wondering why, the Komets and the Mercurys met in the very first game in Fort Wayne history back on October 25, 1952. That's why both teams are sporting retro sweaters here at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum. Here's another interesting fact. If it wasn't for the early success of the Mercurys at the Sports Arena, the Komets may have never existed. The Allen County War Memorial Coliseum was built to house the Fort Wayne Zollner Pistons. If that name sounds familiar, the Detroit Pistons began their National Basketball Association history in Indiana and remained in the Hoosier state until relocating to the Motor City in 1957. While the War Memorial was primarily built for basketball, it had the ability to house a hockey team. Here's where Toledo comes in again. One of the three men who was interested in icing a hockey team in Fort Wayne, Ernie Berg - who has been described as a promoter of public interest - came to the Sports Arena and was captivated by the game and the sellout crowd watching the Mercurys in the International Hockey League. Excited by what he saw, he reported back to his two partners - hotel owner Harold Van Orman, who also owned the Fort Wayne Daisies women's baseball team - and Ramon Perry, an attorney. Sold on the idea, Van Orman attended a meeting of the IHL's board of governors - which was held in Toledo - to explore the possibility of obtaining a franchise in the fledgling league. The other league owners, concerned about franchise stability, told Van Orman he would have to come up with an initial fee. Van Orman's response was to pull out his wallet and offer to pay the fee, right then and there, in cash. Impressed, the IHL awarded an expansion franchise to the city of Fort Wayne. Thus, the Komets were born in Toledo, and largely because of the early success of the sport in the Glass City.
