Toledo Walleye (13-4-0)

VS.

Trois-Rivieres Lions (13-5-0)

Walleye Watch

Five Game Series: The Toledo Walleye fell 5-1 to the Trois-Rivieres Lions in game two of the Kelly Cup Finals on Monday night at the Huntington Center. The series heads to Canada tied 1-1. Tyler Spezia scored the lone tally for the Fish, while Trenton Bliss and Colin Swoyer each added an assist.

Goaltender Carter Gylander took the loss in net, saving 30 of 35 shots on goal.

Something New: The Toledo Walleye and the Trois-Rivieres Lions will have their first meeting ever in the 2025 Kelly Cup Finals. The two teams put a series on the ledger for next season, as the Walleye head to Canada for a three-game weekend February 20-22, 2026. Each team has a storyline heading into the first ever matchup as well. The Walleye look to shake the demons and win Toledo's first championship in 30 years, while the Lions look to win their first championship in their fifth season of existence, and just over a year after the threat of disolution.

Big Game Blisser: Forward Trenton Bliss has stepped up during the Kelly Cup Playoffs, scoring four goals and five total points (4G, 1A) over his last four games. The Appleton, WI native has tallied 22 points (9G, 13A) in the playoffs, including four power play goals and a game-winning goal.

Next Level Support: The Toledo Walleye continue to pack the Huntington Center, boasting a consecutive sellout streak of 80 games. The Fish faithful have taken in to the next level, packing 8,600 people into the arena for game five against Kansas City and both games one and two against Trois-Rivieres, tying the single game attendance record not only for the playoffs, but in the Huntington Center. The crowd of 8,600 fans on Monday marked the seventh occurrence of that figure. The mark of 8,600 is the fifth-highest figure in Walleye history, trailing the four Winterfest games held at Fifth Third Field during the 2014-15 and 2021-22 seasons. The sellout streak spanning nearly two seasons has welcomed over 643,000 fans into the Huntington Center, averaging 8,040 fans per game and 108% capacity. The last non-sellout in the Glass City was December 3, 2023, against the Iowa Heartlanders.

This Day in Toledo Hockey History: Three years ago at the Huntington Center, the Florida Everblades edged the Walleye, 3-1, to take a 2-0 advantage in the Kelly Cup finals. Marcus Vela scored the lone Toledo goal. "We are fighting it ourselves right now," Vela said. "We're not supporting the puck all over the ice and that's kind of leading to a lot of breakdowns." The Fish had won 10 of 11 coming into the series, but the visitors took two in Toledo. The loss put the Walleye in a position where it needed to win four of five, with the next three contests set for Estero, Florida.
